Senate Begins Consideration Of Wagner Relief Bill

SOLONS ALL AGREE NEED NOW URGENT

Senator Couzens of Michigan Opposes Machinery of Relief as Proposed PROVIDES STATE AID

Loans Would Be Made to Municipalities Through State Relief Agencies

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON, June 10.—(UP)—The senate today approved a $300,000,000 emergency measure for federal loans to states and cities which are in need of funds for unemployment relief work. The vote was 72 to 8.

The bill was sponsored by Senator Wagner, Dem., N.Y., and was one of the provisions in his original $2,300,000,000 relief measure. The remainder of that bill is now in a separate proposal for $1,500,000 in self-liquidating construction and $500,000,000 for public works already authorized.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—(UP)—The senate today began consideration of the $300,000,000 relief bill which would provide aid to states and cities unable to take care of their unemployed.

The bill provides the money shall be advanced by the Reconstruction Finance corporation.

Interest would be at the rate of 5 per cent. Repayment would start in 1935 by deductions from federal road building grants.

Senators generally are agreed that the need for human relief is urgent. Disagreement centers around construction features of the various relief plans. President Hoover characterized the Garner public construction bill as a "pork barrel." Senate Democrats devised a bill including not only the "self-liquidating" construction such as toll bridges, tunnels and water-works advocated by Mr. Hoover, but construction of public works as well.

The administration opposes additional public works expenditures. The Democrats proposed a bond issue to finance such projects and the administration has pledged that there will be no further bond issues after July 1.

Wagner explained to the senate that loans would be made to municipalities through state agencies which would borrow from the Finance corporation. Governors would be required to certify the necessity for a loan and that state resources were insufficient to meet relief needs.

PROSECUTION RESTS

WASHINGTON, June 10.—(UP)—The prosecution in the trial of Gaston H. Means, charged with tricking Mrs. Evelyn Walsh McLean out of a $100,000 Lindbergh baby ransom, rested its case today.

District Attorney Leo A. Rover closed the government's case against the former department of justice investigator shortly after hearing testimony of Captain Emory C. Land, a first cousin of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh's mother.

CALIFORNIA BONUS ARMY GETS AWAY

LOS ANGELES, June 10.—(UPI)—Southern California's bonus approximately 1200 former service men, started from here today on the long trek to Washington, D. C.

Some 8000 spectators, many of them relatives of army members, milled through the procession as it got under way in a nondescript collection of automobiles and trucks.

At the head of the column went two flags, one of the United States and the second of the bonus army—the latter with "bonus army of California" in gold letters against a blue background.

Supplying music for the start was a negro fife and drum corps. This corps had its own automobile and will continue with the army.

In a brief statement before the start, Royal W. Robertson, commander of the army, said "we intend to demand favorable bonus legislation as a matter of national economic relief."

"And we will stay in Washington until we get it," he said as his car swept out of the circus grounds where his charges encamped here.

There were almost 150 automobiles and trucks in the procession as it started. The rolling equipment included two ambulances.

Robertson said there were two doctors and seven nurses in the entourage. He said the army had almost $4000 and was certain of having sufficient food and transportation to get to Washington.

He announced a temporary itinerary. He said the army would stop tonight at San Bernardino and then proceed through Tucson, Arizona, Ft. Worth, Dallas, Richmond, Va., to Washington.

The start had been scheduled for 9 a. m. but the great confusion at the circus grounds and a final effort to get more transportation facilities delayed the take-off until after noon.

One final temporary delay was caused by two women who thought Commander Robertson ought to do something about their husbands.

They said they feared the husbands were with the bonus army while they wanted them here. Robertson said he couldn't do anything about "things like that."

of Jersey City, credited with having forced a confession from John Hughes Curtis, Norfolk shipbuilder, who confessed to having hoaxed Colonel Lindbergh into believing he was in contact with the actual kidnappers of his son.

Inspector Walsh is known as one of the shrewdest detectives in the New York metropolitan area.

Colonel Schwartzkopf went from Alphine to the Morrow home immediately upon learning of the girl's suicide.

Miss Sharp, in her statement to state police, was the only one of the Morrow servants, state police said, who could not give a satisfactory account of her movements on the night of the kidnapping.

She told questioners that she had been out riding that night with two men and a woman, and that the ride lasted from 8 to 11 p. m.

The dead girl came from England. Scotland Yard, when asked about her, gave her a clean bill of health.

In her first examination she told police she had been away from the Morrow home from 8 to 11 p. m. the night of the kidnapping. She said she had been riding with two men and a woman whose identity she did not know. Police said today they had suspicions as to their identity, depending on the fact that of all the servants questioned her story was the only one which was not considered satisfactory.

Major Charles Schoeffel, who went to Europe to investigate certain phases of the Lindbergh case, said, however, that state police have definite information about the line with a one cent per gallon tax; oil at one cent per quart; two and one-half cents and four cents per pound respectively for new tires and tubes, and two per cent tax on accessories just to keep the old buggy running. A new one will cost $3 for every $100 you pay the dealer.

SANTA ANA WILL PAY HUGE SUM UNDER NEW TAX LAWS

The power company is going to collect an additional three per cent of your light bill; each 50-cent long distance telephone call will take 10 cents more for taxes.

Every time you clean your teeth or the ladies of the family buy beauty stuff it's going to cost five and ten per cent more. Matches, candy, chewing gum, theater tickets, sporting goods, radios, mechanical refrigerators, soft drinks, jewelry, furs, safety deposit boxes, deeds, stock and bond transfers and many other things are going to add a lot more cents to this tax bill.

Santa Ana bankers were today entirely in the dark as to how they were going to collect that tax. Uncle Sam has given notice that it will be up to the banker to collect by paying the government 2 cents for each check drawn by the depositor at the end of each month. The tax is to be deducted from the depositor's account.

First advises were that counter checks would be exempt but a few hours later came word that the treasury department had ruled they were subject to the tax, too.

Several local bankers believed that when the new check tax becomes effective there will be a drop in deposits because people will pay their bills by cash and not use the bank at all.

So far local bankers have no official notice as to how to proceed. Some, recalling former check and note taxes in 1918 and 1914-15, thought they would proceed as at that time when the writer or maker of the note affixed his own stamp or, in the case of checks, was furnished with check books in which the stamp was watermarked. Of course the depositor had to buy this check book. Bankers have been busy trying to find out what the procedure will be but they do not expect word from authoritative sources for the next two or three days. Their guess is that the method of collecting the check tax will be an entirely new one but one thing they are sure of is that the banks are going to have to do a lot of work for which they get no pay.

A falling off in the number of checks is expected, but within a month one banker said the number would be back to normal just as it came back when Santa Ana banks adopted the minimum deposit service charge and five cents for each check over 10 issued in a month on accounts under $100.

Woodmansee admitted several previous arrests in Los Angeles and Orange counties on similar charges. Assistant District Attorney S. B. Kaufman asked him what he was in the habit of drinking and Woodmansee replied that "he got drunk on whiskey when he could get it" but on the day he was arrested he had been drinking canned heat mixed with wine.

Assessments for the improvement, it is claimed, would be confiscatory to Mexicans now owning this property and it is proposed to trade them lot for lot and move their houses to a 31-acre tract off of Patt street, now owned by the Community Industrial Lands company. Five acres of this tract would be set aside for the transplanted Mexican homes and the remainder of the tract, now owned by 206 Anaheim business men, would be subdivided and sold to other home seeking Mexicans. The tract was originally purchased about eight years ago as an industrial subdivision.

Only property owned by Mexicans for 150 feet back from North Los Angeles street between Spadra and Lemon street so that the way will be cleared for the widening and paving of North Los Angeles street as the city's next major street improvement was brought into the open at yesterday's meeting of Chamber of Commerce directors.

The proposed North Los Angeles street improvement is being held up, it is said, by inability of property owners to meet assessments that would be levied. On the south side of the street G. M. Bartlett has agreed to donate a 20-foot strip to the city for street widening purposes, this donation to take the place of his assessment. It is said. This property is the Orange Show grounds frontage. There would still be some difficulty in meeting assessments for necessary straightening and widening of the Lemon street in intersection, according to George Reid, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

No definite action was taken on the proposal.

ST. LOUIS MAN TO HEAD U. S. BANKERS

LOS ANGELES, June 10.—(UPI)—Election of Frank N. Hall, controller of the federal reserve bank of St. Louis, as president of the American Institute of Banking was the concluding feature of the annual convention today.

Albert S. Puelicher, of the Marshall and Ilsley Bank, Milwaukee, Wis., was to be elected vice president.

Both offices are uncontested. Hall, who joined the federal reserve bank in 1928, will become head of an organization composed of more than 600,000 junior bank executives in the United States.

ARRESTED FOR THEFT OF AUTO, CLOTHING

Charged with grand theft in connection with the theft of an automobile and other articles, Marvin Griffith, 24, of the Palace hotel was arrested by police yesterday afternoon.

Griffith is specifically charged with entering the home of Walter Chico at Irvine station on June 4 and stealing a suitcase, clothing and a guitar valued at $150. He then drove away a car belonging to Chico, the complaint states.

The arrest was brought about through a report to police that Griffith was trying to sell Charles Eldridge, of Irvine station, the guitar. Griffith tried to impersonate Chico, it was said, and was wearing clothes belonging to Chico at the time.

Griffith was lodged in the county jail last night. The case will be handled by Chief Stanton of Tustin, according to local officers.

Death Notices

A WORD OF COMFORT

Just as the city must wake out of the quietness of the illusive dawn to the realities of busy activities, so must you rouse yourself from contemplation of the happiness and companionship which you had anticipated and take up your burden.

The joys of yesterday were real while they lasted and the blessings of the future are sure but it is with the present that you have to do today.

Marshal your strength and your courage. You are not alone and you are not destined for defeat. Daydreaming and longing will not suffice; you have work to do.

Discussion revealed the fact that the various relief agencies carry on specialized relief work among certain groups; that they are already established and organized for carrying on relief work, and that many of the groups, because of the nature of their organizations, could not actively participate in the program.

Centralization Essential

The definite consensus of the meeting, however, was that it was essential that there be some organization to act as a clearing house to avoid costly duplication of relief efforts in the city—to focus all efforts in one channel.

The situation locally could be aided greatly, according to Byron Curry, director of the county welfare department, if transportation could be furnished for many families who live here who are not legal residents and who wish to return to their homes in other states. The county cannot legally furnish funds for this purpose, he said.

W. J. Tway, chairman of the Community Chest board of directors, suggested that the machinery of the Chest be made available for solicitation of funds. The Chest has from 150 to 200 workers, he stated.

The advisability of making public the expenditures of all relief groups of the city as a whole was stressed by Smart, who presided over the meeting.

Avoid Confusion

Harry Edwards, of the Veterans' Welfare bureau, suggested that each organization be given some specific relief activity to avoid confusion, with the mayor's committee in control.

Now that the Citizen's Unemployment Emergency Relief committee, of which organization Robert Speed was executive secretary, has been disbanded and with the appointment of the new committee, it has become apparent that the organization most suited to handle the relief work in the community for themselves, is the Unemployed association of Santa Ana, with the mayor's committee acting in a supervisory capacity, Smart said.

Organizations represented at the meeting yesterday were: Salvation Army, Goodwill Industries, county welfare, Catholic Welfare bureau, Parent-Teacher's association, Legion Auxiliary, rehabilitation committee, Orange County Veterans' Welfare bureau, Santa Ana Elks, Unemployed association, Citizens' Relief committee, the Y. M. C. A. and the Ministerial union.

Antolin is accused of having shot Herrera to death in a quarrel over a woman. The fight took place on the Bastanchury ranch and is said to have been the aftermath of a drinking party indulged in by a group of Mexicans. Antolin was shot in the foot during the battle.

GROUPS AGREE ON NEED FOR SUPERVISION

WAGNER RELIEF BILL TAKEN UP BY SENATORS

Twelve prominent relief organization heads of Santa Ana meeting in the old Willard school building yesterday afternoon to consider the advisability of organizing a general supervising relief committee in the city, voted their approval of the formation of such an overseeing group, and produced a spirit of co-operation in the task of caring for the unemployed of the community.

A suggestion was made by J. S. Smart, temporary chairman of the Citizens' Relief committee, recently appointed by Mayor Paul Witmer, that there be one employment office and one committee to handle all relief work in the city and that relief funds likewise be handled through a central committee.

Discussion revealed the fact that the various relief agencies carry on specialized relief work among certain groups; that they are already established and organized for carrying on relief work, and that many of the groups, because of the nature of their organizations, could not actively participate in the program.

"This is no gift of the government," pointed out Senator Barkley, Democrat, Ky. "It was a gift there might be some force to arguments for distribution from Washington."

The senate adopted an amendment offered by Wagner authorizing the corporation to issue notes, bonds and debentures up to $300,000 for the purpose of carrying out the loan provisions.

Wagner explained that the amendment was proposed so that the new duties of the corporation would not interfere with the funds at present provided for it.

G. O. P. LEADERS ARE DISTURBED OVER ELECTION

Professional political talent behind the scenes to do the real political work of the campaign.

Party leaders register considerable pessimism over the outlook for November. There is an unprecedented absence of noise, excitement, and circus enthusiasm.

Prohibition continues to be the dominating topic in every group. Some of the convention leaders are resentful of the attempts of the senatorial group in Washington to shape the prohibition plank. Police today were intent on the investigation of a report that a man was bothering a seven-year-old girl on the way home from school each day. The girl and her small brother, according to the report, had been coming home late from school each night, and so did utilities, the latter group being strong in the late trading.

Allied Chemicals spurted more than three points; American Can more than two, American Smelting a point and Du Pont more than a point. DEATH REMOVES PIONEER AFTER BRIEF ILLNESS

Romulo Delsid, 82, one of the oldest pioneers of Orange county, died last night in the family home in Stanton after an illness of but two weeks' duration. He was the father of 47 children and had outlived all but six of them, according to members of the family.

He had lived in Orange county for the past 50 years and in Southern California for the past 75 years, coming here from Texas in the gold rush when he was 18 years old. He was a commissioned officer in the Spanish-American war. His family is well known in this section as one of the most

Program Is Slated For Class Affair

ORANGE, June 10.—Elaborate plans are being made for the junior-senior banquet to be given tomorrow night at 6:30 o'clock at the Woman's club, when members of the junior class will be hosts to the seniors. Miss Helen Joesting is in charge of the program.

The entertainment for the evening is to be given by a group of talented children, dancers and singers from Hollywood and Los Angeles. They were secured through the efforts of Mrs. D. A. Schroeder of this city.

Anne Harriet Lovell is to be master of ceremonies at the banquet and the program will include songs by Baby Alice, "blues" singer, dances and songs by Jane Taylor, tap dancer and singer, songs by Shirley Boles, and dancing by Gwyneth Verdon and Ginger Fisher.

There is to be no speaker at the banquet and informal talks will be given.

RECLAMATION DEMONSTRATION PLANT CONSTRUCTION IS RECOMMENDED BY ENGINEER

Harry N. Jenks, Berkeley sanitary engineer, was the guest speaker last night at the meeting of the joint sewage reclamation committee at Kettner's cafe, and gave an illustrated lecture on "Treatment of Sewage to Obtain Irrigation Water." Jenks showed pictures of the various types of reclamation and water purifying plants now in operation, explained the advantages and disadvantages of each type plant and the method used in reducing sewage to usable water.

In connection with the Orange county proposal, Jenks advised the committee to prepare a demonstration plant before attempting to sell the public on the idea of reclamation. This plant, he said, would serve two purposes. First it would give the engineer an opportunity to study the plant efficiency, make necessary changes in design to effect greater economy in installation and operation of plant, and would prove the efficiency of the treatment method under test.

D. D. Waynick, chairman of the sub-committee on finance reported on a recently completed financial return as it would apply to the various communities to be included in the proposed district for reclamation of sewage to be used for irrigation and replenishment of the underground water supply.

He reached his conclusions in the report by taking a lot in each city with a present assessed valuation of $450 and an estimated increase to $650 in 1950. In most cases the cities would be showing a credit by 1950 he said. This credit would come through the sale of irrigation water.

The cost to the average property owner in Santa Ana per $100 assessed valuation would be 51 cents per year and would have dropped until 1950 the cost would be 28 cents, he declared. At present Santa Ana annual cost for operation of the joint outfall sewer is $5601.25 which, based upon population, is the lowest of any community included in the proposed district.

McFadden reported on meetings of the sub-committee has had recently with councils of Santa Ana, Anaheim, Fullerton, Orange and Placentia. While the councils were interested in the engineering and financial reports prepared for presentation, they declined to take action, and McFadden suggested last night that the engineering and financial sub-committees of the organization prepare digests of their reports to be given each member of the various city councils.

He said that with the aid of these digests he hoped to receive reports from the various municipal groups within the next two months as the project is of too great magnitude to expect municipal action without ample time for study.

Councils of the various cities in Orange county before whom the proposed sewage reclamation scheme has been presented, were interested in the reports, but have failed to indicate their attitude toward the project, according to Ralph McFadden, chairman of the committee and chairman of the sub-committee on contacting communities included in the proposed district.

CONSERVATION OF WATER IS BIG PROBLEM

One of the big questions before California is the proposed statewide conservation of water. Notwithstanding that this state has been favored with unusual rainfall during the past months, the entire people, and particularly those engaged in agriculture, believe that something should be done to conserve the water so that not a drop escapes into the ocean without first doing some good.

For the past twenty years there has been agitation for the conservation but very little has been done about it, and as the years have gone by, the increasing importance has been seen.

For eight years at least, the legislature of the state has been considering conservation and several committees have been created in the past to try to do something. All of them have failed so far as legislation is concerned.

Legislative Group

At the last session of the legislature, a committee was created consisting of seven members from the Assembly and seven members from the Senate to consider this important subject. Its duties were to try to devise some conservation plan that would meet the situation, and, when they agreed upon a plan to submit it to the legislature for action, with the understanding that the Governor, who has continuously stressed the importance of conservation, had agreed to call a special session. The legislature gave the Governor authority to appoint a commission to act in conjunction with the Legislative Committee and these two boards have been meeting up and down the state trying to find out the best judgment of all those interested.

Several months ago, the representative committee completed its work by recommending a constitutional amendment to the people. The main points of the amendment provides that it would give the state authority to loan its credit to proposed districts. Before it could do so, the district would have to be surveyed by some body to be created later on; that body to recommend the needs of that district and determine just how much credit would be given to that district. The survey must show that the amount of credit loaned by the state can be repaid within seventy years by the district. In case the district should become delinquent, and fail to make the payments, the state would have authority to step in and levy an ad valorem tax to make up the deficiency.

The procedure of this is that the committee recommends that the government call a special session of the legislature. The legislature then considers the question. It is the hope of those interested, that the legislature will then submit the constitutional amendment to the people. If the people adopt the amendment by the majority vote, it will then be in force.

In adopting the constitutional amendment, the committee recommended certain projects. They

FIRST LADY TAKES IN SALE

One of the first customers at a sale of clothing for working men and their children, held in Washington the other day, was the First Lady of the Land. And here you see Mrs. Herbert Hoover as she smilingly inspected a garment shown to her by Mrs. Richard Dunn. The capital's Junior League sponsored the sale.

were what is known as the Sacramento and San Joaquin Project. The Sacramento Project proposes a dam at Kenney in the upper Sacramento River above Redding. A huge dam would be built there almost one hundred feet high and costing the power plant in connection, about $80,000,000, as the state highway goes through the dam site and also the Southern Pacific Railway. These would have to be removed and relocated at the expense of the district and this alone would cost a little over $16,000,000. The purpose of the dam would be to house the surplus water and allow it to come down the Sacramento River whenever it is needed. For years, because of irrigation in the upper Sacramento River, the salt water of the San Francisco Bay has been creeping up the Sacramento River. Many industries above the lower mouth, which had been depending on the fresh water of the river, have been unable to use it owing to the saline contents. Then too, vast irrigation projects have found it necessary to discontinue use of the river water for the same reason.

Engineers advise that, with the building of the Kenney dam, fresh water will be going down to force, by its own weight, the salt water back into the bay and provide fresh water both for the industries and agriculture.

San Joaquin Helped

The engineers also advise us that there would be, in addition, enough surplus water coming down the river to be pumped through a channel, to be constructed by the Sacramento river and the San Joaquin river, to irrigate the San Joaquin valley.

Pumping systems would be installed along the San Joaquin river to pump this water backward as far as necessary.

Another dam would be constructed at Friant in San Joaquin valley above Fresno. The water of the San Joaquin is at present being used around Fresno, but with the construction of the dam, this water would be pumped back southward toward the Bakerfield and the Sacramento river water to be used to take place of the San Joaquin water for irrigation.

This exchange of water would reduce the amount of life and, of course, the amount of annual expense of pumping.

These two are considered the major projects and the necessary costing of the plan, but the recommendation of the committee was amended to provide that any other projects recommended by the state engineer as a major project, could also be considered at the same time.

The Governor's committee meeting last week has agreed practically on the Legislative Committee plan but have not yet concluded their study nor have they made any recommendations to the governor that he call a special session.

Limitation Made

Some of the members of the Governor's commission and one member of the Legislative Committee feel that the state should put a limit on the amount of credit allowed to a district. It is their opinion that the amount of credit loaned to a district should be in some ratio according to the assessed valuation of that district.

One of the members placed the ratio at thirty-five per cent. That is, the state should not loan more than thirty-five per cent of the assessed valuation of the district.

This would make it almost impossible for the district to go delinquent.

The next step in the state water plan will be awaited with interest by the people. The next step, as to whether he will call a special session to consider the plan, is up to Governor Rolph. If he does not, it will be brought up at the next session of the legislature which convenes in 1932.

The federal government has already promised aid of $6,000,000 to help with the project.

The water conservation program is of vital interest to all the people of the state of California.

MANAGED MAN ESCAPES; SEEK JIMMY RIVERS

A complaint charging Jimmy Rivers, Anaheim pugilist, with aiding in the escape of a prisoner and resisting an officer was issued today by the district attorney's office and signed by Steve Duhart of the fruit patrol.

Rivers is accused of aiding his brother-in-law, Frank Carrisoa, to escape after Duhart had handcuffed him. The pugilist also is said to have resisted attempts of Duhart and his fellow officer, Sam Snodgrass, to search the Rivers home for Carrisoa.

Carrisoa and a companion, Andrew Balles, of Fullerton, were taken in custody by Duhart and Snodgrass last night on the highway between Buena Park and Anaheim on suspicion of having stolen an automobile in Anaheim.

The fruit patrol officers trailed Carrisoa and Balles, who were riding in a small coupe, for several miles. When they halted the car and started to question the men Balles is said to have fled. Carrisoa made his escape after having been handcuffed.

BALBOA CROONER GIVEN PROBATION

Leonard Mann, 19-year-old crooner with an orchestra playing at Balboa, accused of a statutory offense against a 15-year-old girl was granted probation for one year, today by Superior Judge James L. Allen. Probation was granted upon recommendation of Assistant District Attorney S. R. Kaufman who said that he had investigated the case and was of the opinion that the youth had been victimized rather than the girl.

In granting probation, Judge Allen compared Mann's past record with that of the girl and after reading her record with the juvenile department of the Los Angeles court said that she apparently "was a success as a failure" and scored her parents for their failure to guide her properly. He also ordered the girl cited into juvenile court after saying that if parents cannot care for their children it is time for the state to step in.

Engineers advise that, with the building of the Kenney dam, fresh water will be going down to force, by its own weight, the salt water back into the bay and provide fresh water both for the industries and agriculture.

SOCIETY

Long Beach Beaumont Gives Program for Santa Anas

Members of the Social Order of the Beaumont took part in two enjoyable meetings this evening, beginning with a noon-day meeting of the Beaumont Circle, and concluding with an evening session during which members of the Long Beach Social Order of the Beaumont presented a play. Masonic temple was the scene of both events.

Thirty members of the Long Beach organization were present for the evening session. Some of their group presented a play with its setting in the gay 90's. Members of the cast wore appropriate costumes, portraying a group of former schoolmates who held a reunion several years later. Mrs. Harry Miller, of Long Beach, was director.

During the play, Mrs. Miller gave a reading concerning "Mr. and Mrs. Jinks." Musical numbers interspersed the production were "Juanita," "After the Ball Was Over" and "On the Sidewalks of New York."

Preceding the play, members of the Girls' Glee club of Frances Willard junior high school gave several numbers, under the direction of Miss Helen Glancy. Miss Catherine Budd gave a piano solo, and Mrs. C. E. Smith, two vocal numbers.

Circle Meeting

Members of the Beaumont Circle held their monthly meeting at noon. A delicious luncheon was served under the direction of Mrs. Verne Whiston and Mrs. C. S. Dunphy. A short business session followed, and the remainder of the day was spent in doing welfare sewing. The group will hold no more meetings this summer.

Church Societies

J. O. C. Class Convenes

Entertainment an d business were pleasingly combined by J. O. C. class members of the First Baptist church, when that group met with Mrs. Clay Williams, 1019 Spurges street, Tuesday night, for its June session.

Deviotions on "Beginning of the Christian Church and the Organization of the Baptist Church," led by Mrs. Ada Davison, opened the meeting, which consisted of reports by committee heads and by the three delegates to the J. O. C. house party held at Pacific Palisades last month by Southern California J. O. C. representatives.

Delegates were Miss Lula Minter, class president; Miss Mayme Havens and Miss Gertrude Minor, Mrs. Minnie M. Holmes, class teacher, who accompanied the delegates, was unable to be present to make her report.

Program numbers included two readings by Miss Naomi Dennis, a guest, who was presented by the class with a French bouquet; group songs led by Miss Bess Nalle; and a skit, "The Moller Drummer," amusingly depicted by a cast including Mesdames Carrie Stearns, Lucille Hill, Sallie Earl,

Florence Holmes, Ber Williams; the Misses Lula Minter, Gertrude Minor and Ruby Bell Williams.

Arrangements were made for the annual class picnic, to be held probably in August, for which event the July and August committees will join forces.

Refreshments were served by Mesdames Clay Williams, Mary Higgin and Lydia Hendrickson, Miss Mayme Havens and Miss Edith Watkins.

Convention Plans Made

Delegates to the national convention in San Diego June 18 to 25, were chosen and plans discussed whereby the Orange county auxiliary might contribute to the hospitality extended visiting delegates, at a meeting of the local organization held Wednesday night in the American Legion hall.

Elected to represent this country's auxiliary were Mesdames Harold O. Rasmussen, Harry S. Pickard, B. Chittenden, A. H. Jones, H. P. Brewer, Victor Curran and Miss Lydia Fisher.

A basket of various fruits grown in Orange county will be placed in the room of each national officer attending the San Diego convention, it was tentatively decided by members of the local auxiliary last night. The gifts will include oranges, lemons and walnuts.

Further activities of the Orange County D.A.V. auxiliary will be delayed until after the national convention, members agreed.

WILLIAMS LEAVES FOR CONVENTION

W. B. Williams, Santa Ana banker and delegate to the national convention of the Republican party from the nineteenth Congressional district, left last night for San Francisco where he was scheduled to join the California delegation.

The delegation is to leave for Chicago late today after a farewell luncheon, Mrs. Williams accompanied by her husband.

According to reports from San Francisco where delegates met for a caucus yesterday the California delegation is at loggerheads over the prohibition question and harmony of the delegation's program was threatened with disruption.

While the delegation, acting on instructions of Mark Requa, national committeeman, issued no formal statement on the grounds that it might embarrass President Hoover, it was informally understood that a wide open split was threatened by the controversy.

Twenty-six of the state's 47 delegates have been labelled as prohibitionists who with a unit vote to make it appear that California may be listed among the dry states, it is said.

Church Societies

J. O. C. Class Convenes

Entertainment an d business were pleasingly combined by J. O. C. class members of the First Baptist church, when that group met with Mrs. Clay Williams, 1019 Spurges street, Tuesday night, for its June session.

Deviotions on "Beginning of the Christian Church and the Organization of the Baptist Church," led by Mrs. Ada Davison, opened the meeting, which consisted of reports by committee heads and by the three delegates to the J. O. C. house party held at Pacific Palisades last month by Southern California J. O. C. representatives.

Delegates were Miss Lula Minter, class president; Miss Mayme Havens and Miss Gertrude Minor, Mrs. Minnie M. Holmes, class teacher, who accompanied the delegates, was unable to be present to make her report.

Program numbers included two readings by Miss Naomi Dennis, a guest, who was presented by the class with a French bouquet; group songs led by Miss Bess Nalle; and a skit, "The Moller Drummer," amusingly depicted by a cast including Mesdames Carrie Stearns, Lucille Hill, Sallie Earl,

OIL MAN SAYS FAITH, BELIEF ARE REQUIRED

Wilbur Shook was chairman of the Lions club program yesterday, which included an entertaining address by L. D. Blodgett of Los Angeles, manager of commercial sales for the Richfield Oil company, in which he declared the public must have faith in our government and return to a belief in God in order to overcome poverty and the depression and return to prosperity and happiness.

Plans for the annual installation party, when newly elected officers are to be installed, were announced by Burr Shaffer, chairman of the entertainment committee. The affair will take the form of a dinner dance and will be held at the Balboa Palisades club Friday evening, June 17, taking the place of the regular luncheon next Thursday.

New officers to be installed at that time include Glenn Tidball, president, succeeding Ray Adkinson; vice presidents, A. I. Mellenthin, R. Carson Smith and Wilbur Shook; secretary, Sunny Sundquist; treasurer, Lynn Hart; lion tamer, Joe Peterson; tail twister, Earl Abney. Directors Ralph Reitl and Gilmore Ward, along with Gar Ross, Ray Adkinson and C. E. Stewart, hold-over directors.

CHILD BEATER IS WARNED BY POLICE

A report that a man had beaten his small boy severely caused police to investigate a call last night. Paul Machia was found at the home of a friend and told officers his father had bitten him on the arm, had beaten him several times and had thrown a hammer at him. Officers took the youth home and warned the parent against pursuing similar tactics in the future.

VACATION BEGINS AT HEALTH CAMP

With the arrival of summer, more than 20 youngsters decided to "go native" yesterday at the children's health camp in the San Diego canyon. Painted like Indians, they danced about a decorated tepee in front of which burned a tribal fire. They knew how to put on their impromptu pageant too, for they have studied Indian life as one of their school projects for several weeks. Pottery making, with clay dug in nearby hills, has been one of their activities.

"Enthusiasm begets enthusiasm," and so it is. Those who are keeping their eyes open and their ears to the ground know what has been accomplished under prohibition, and sure of the final outcome, are passing their enthusiasm on to others.

Settlement Worker's Stand

Hear Lillian Wald, settlement worker among the four million Jews of New York City, on the subject. Her work has kept her in constant touch with liquor conditions both before and since the passage of the eighteenth amendment.

She is emphatic in her belief in prohibition and wants more of it instead of less. She has seen the Saturday night pay check changed from the pocket of the liquor dispenser to that of the grocer, the dry-goods dealer, the automobile salesmen, the house builder and many of their kind; the Monday morning with the aching head and sore heart to one of peace and satisfaction. She knows better than all the rest of us that these times of distress and unemployment would be much worse if liquor were freely dispensed and "squeaky" want, cruelty and all that goes with this debasing business were with us now.

She says, "In the old days one family out of five who came for help, registered that liquor was the reason for their destitution, now one in 14. Of 60,000 cases under the care of her nurses in 1931, only one was given as due to alcohol.

Salvation Army Figures

Perhaps you do not know Lillian Wald and her wonderful services but who not listen to Evangeline Booth of the Salvation Army: "Before prohibition, in a single night from 1200 to 1200 drunks of the New York slums would be rounded up and brought into the Army Homes where they were fed, clothed and sobered. When prohibition came the number immediately lowered to 400 and now down to 12, and even to seven. In the old days filthy rooms and beds followed the night of debauch; now their hotels or homes can be kept clean and respectable.

In one of the Homes of Chicago with 120 week-end "boarders" only two were drunk one week recently and none at all the next. During a small-pox scare a physician vaccinated 500 of these men and not one even had the smell of liquor on his breath—not a drunk among them.

So much for our settlements of the big cities and we could cite many others with as startling a record.

So far as the small towns and open country is concerned use your own eyes. One has but to travel day after day our highways and streets to see how free they are from the reeling drunkard or the sozzled beside the road. Even those of middle life need not dig deep in their memories to remember such.

In Orange County

Take our own Orange county of which we are so proud, can you not remember the drunken loafers hanging around voting places on election day, and any day on the streets of most of our towns under saloons were seen many under the influence of liquor.

Although one seldom sees a drunk we fear there are many today with their hands on the steering wheel of the automobile. We are inclined to think however that percentage is not great. Too many are thinking of that "split-second" when clear brains are needed to steer to safety the auto that might take a life.

When Robert Dollar of San Rafael was making his adventure into the steamship business he was warned that unless he carried liquor

QUOTES FIGURES TO REVEAL TRUE BENEFITS TO NATION RESULTING FROM PROHIBITION

By CLARA MCPHERSON JONES

Have you heard anybody harking of the "good old days" before Prohibition? If any are discouraged or dissatisfied with the march toward national sobriety, let's glimpse at the decorated tepee in front of which burned a tribal fire. They knew how to put on their impromptu pageant too, for they have studied Indian life as one of their school projects for several weeks. Pottery making, with clay dug in nearby hills, has been one of their activities.

GRIFFITH WINS ONE OF TEN SCHOLARSHIPS

tion scholarship competition conducted by University of Southern California this spring.

The successful Santa Ana is George S. Griffith, 1427 South Ross street, who graduated from junior college next week and who will enter the university next September. Griffith was president of the Jaycees student body last year.

Meeting fully the requirements for "admission to advanced standing" at the Trojan university, each scholarship winner was in the highest tenth of his class, was recommended by his principal and teachers as standing high in scholarship, school citizenship, personality traits, and in promise of future educational success, according to the report of Dr. Frank G. Touton, vice president of U. S. G. and chairman of the junior college tuition scholarship competition.

World Council Of Youth to Meet In L. A. In August

A gigantic World Council of Youth will be held in Los Angeles in August immediately following the Olympic games. The conference is sponsored by the Junior Council on International Relation made up of young peoples groups in the Southern California churches, colleges, Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. groups, international clubs, Cosmopolitan clubs, and similar organizations. Many subjects of interest and importance will be on the calendar of the conference, attitudes toward education, religion, philosophies. Economic as well as international relations will be discussed during the ten day period of the session.

500 ATTRACTED TO COSTA MESA GRADE PROGRAM

COSTA MESA, June 10.—Over 500 people witnessed the eighth grade graduation exercises of the Costa Mesa elementary school in the school auditorium Thursday night.

Henry Abrams, district superintendent of elementary schools, spoke of his appreciation of the attendance and introduced the Rev. C. D. Hicks of Santa Ana, the guest speaker, whose topic was "When the Scaffolding Comes Down."

"Lives are continually in the building, and we build for good or ill," the Rev. Mr. Hicks said. "School life is to the life of the child as scaffolding to a building. The building cannot be seen until the scaffolding comes down, but young folks of this class, do not take the scaffolding down tonight. This goal is only the first step. Go on to high school and college."

The school orchestra, directed by Mrs. Marie Pearce, with Doris Gibson at the piano, played the processional and recessional.

Two vocal duets were given by Wanda Thompson and Helen Davis. An instrumental duet was presented by Alf Pearce and William Welch. The invocation was by the Rev. A. F. Hasse. "Bells of the Sea" and "Swing Low Sweet Chariot" were selections sung by the glee club.

Pennmanship certificates were awarded to the following graduates: Kiyoko Bingo, Willard Bailey, Fred Brinkman, Juanita Brock, Miriam Brown, Grace Daughenbaugh, Helen Davis, Pauline Dennis, Alma Dye, Marguerite Fain, Doris Gibson, Mildred Green, Rose Marie Hill, Tom Imoto, Jean King, Miwoko Kurihara, Donna Lee Maule, Bernice Mellott, Alicia Petris, Shirley Sandberg, Mary Stager, Wanda Thompson, Yvonne Wallace, Betty Wells and Virginia Wilson.

Charles Dunn, member of the school board, awarded the American Legion school awards to Mary Conwell and Floyd Jones, class president. Awards were made on the basis of honor, courage, scholarship, leadership and service.

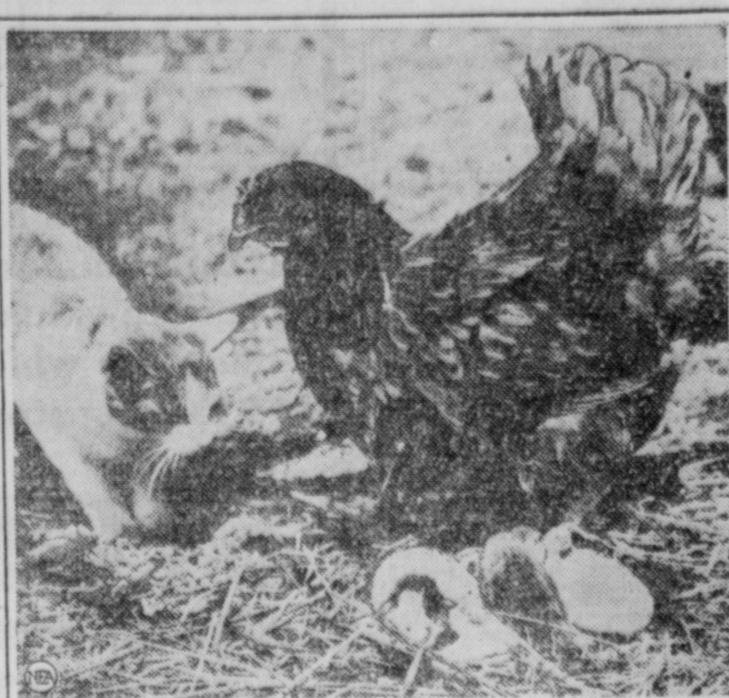

J. F. Webster, new president of the school board, was presented the class by Superintendent Harry Abrams.

Diplomas were presented by Grow S. Brown to the following:

Hazel Aldrich, Robert Allman, Ruth Attridge, Willard Bailey, Kiyoko Bingo, Almira Black, Fred Brinkman, Juanita Brock, Miriam Brown, Billy Bushard, John Carruthers, Robert Clift, Mary Conwell, Joe Cordova, James Cover, Grace Daughenbaugh, Helen Davis,

A STRANGE ADOPTION

The owner of the big Rhode Island Red hen below wouldn't set any eggs under her, so she went out and scouted up a family for herself in her Gridley, Calif., barnyard. It didn't matter that the family turned out to be kittens, for she induced them to sleep under her wings and follow her about. The mother cat, shown on left, doesn't seem to mind having her responsibilities taken from her.

PARTY ENJOYED

PLACENTIA, June 10.—Ellen Reeves, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Norman Reeves, entertained at a supper and theater party for a group of Ellen's friends last night after school.

The girls had supper at the Reeves home in Santa Ana canyon, after which they attended a play, and had refreshments. Attending were Virginia Reeves, Dorothy Beak, Dorothy Thurman, Lucille Jones, Frances Sweet, Vena Copeland and Ellen and her mother.

ARRANGE FUNERAL OF HENRY MARION

NEWPORT BEACH, June 10.—Funeral rites for Henry Monroe Marion, 65, will be held Saturday at 3 p.m. He was the brother of Mrs. W. Francis Brownner of Alhambra, and Mrs. Anna Lura Hulse of Tacoma, Wash.

The deceased was a retired bandmaster of the 16th Infantry of the U. S. Army. Full military services will be held at the grave in Fairhaven cemetery, the military band and firing squad being furnished from the regular army barracks at Ft. McArthur.

The Chezum Funeral home of Costa Mesa is in charge of arrangements.

SELECT OFFICERS FOR LIONS CLUB

GARDEN GROVE, June 10.—Election of officers for the Garden Grove Lions club was held at the luncheon meeting Wednesday at Ocean Inn. Those elected were Ray Johnson, president; Charles Lake, first vice president; W. O. Broady, second vice president; Tom Devine, treasurer; Dr. Irving Baldwin, secretary; C. L. Pearson, tall twister; Warren Wheeler, lion tamer; three new members for the board of directors; E. A. Wakeham, W. B. Wentz and L. W. Schauer.

A women's night program is being planned for the evening of June 22, at which time the newly elected officers will be installed.

Bridge Enjoyed In Hansen Home

HANSEN, June 10.—Mrs. V. K. Chandler entertained with a bridge luncheon Wednesday at her home on Hansen road. Pink and orchid were the colors used in the decorations. A three-course luncheon was served. Mrs. Chandler's guests were Mrs. H. L. Parry of Fullerton; Mrs. W. P. Quarton, Mrs. Cutis Case, Mrs. Harold Blythe, all of Anaheim; Mrs. R. D. Temple, of Cypress; Mrs. George Trapp, Mrs. L. T. Wilsey, of Buena Park; Mrs. John Burch, of Long Beach; Mrs. W. R. Martin, of Fullerton; Mrs. W. E. Thurman, of Buena Park, and Mrs. Charles W. J. C. STUDENTS
WILL PRESENT
LAST PROGRAM

Presenting a review of their past series of broadcasts Santa Ana Junior College students will go on the air tonight at 6:45 for the concluding program of the school year.

The program tonight will feature Leo Slaback, accordionist. He has received more favorable comment than any other artist appearing on the college programs during the year.

Another featured group of artists tonight will be the radio string trio, under direction of Miss Zelma Smith who will also play a group of violin solos. The string trio will be remembered as the organization that presented the first program on the college broadcast.

Hazel Stukay, soprano who sang one of the leading feminine roles in the recent production of the light opera "Prince of Pilsen," will sing two solos and Duncan Arnolds will be featured in a group of piano numbers.

Lewis Bates, president of the graduating class from the college will be the speaker of the evening and will discuss the class's history.

KREG NOTES

Sponsored by Gray-Gone, Carlos Molina and His Tango and Rumba Cocoanut Grove band will be heard by electrical transcription tonight at 8 o'clock instead of at the regular hour, 6:45, set for this broadcast.

Tomorrow afternoon Dick Love, teacher of accordion, will be on the air with his regular weekly program.

Bumper Crop Of Sugar Beets Seen In Smeltzer Area

SMELTZER. June 10.—Crops are advancing rapidly in growth in this section. The sugar beet crop has made an unusually splendid growth this year. There is every indication of a bumper crop for the coming harvest season, according to growers.

Runners are now on the lime vine plants. Planting began rather early in many instances this spring.

TALENTED BARITONE ON KREG TONIGHT

A special program to be presented tonight over KREG under sponsorship of Ormsby's Department store of Anaheim will introduce John Churchill, baritone and reader, formerly featured on a national radio network as well as over several of Southern California's stations.

His program will feature several dramatized song-stories, ballads and romantic musical episodes. He will be assisted at the piano by Aaron Gonzalez, well-known pianist and composer.

RADIO FEATURES

Time References Are Pacific Standard Time

A spectacular program will be Seattle's contribution to the Around the Network feature over the NBC chain from 10:30 to 11 o'clock tonight. The "production" will utilize several hundred persons, including a full ship's crew and gangs of long-shoremen, and as "props" will make use of a 20,000-ton trans-Pacific liner, the largest commercial pier in the world, trucks, cranes and other wharf equipment. It will originate at Pier 41, the Seattle terminal of the American Mail Line, and will depict the arrival of the S. S. President Jefferson after a voyage from the Orient. A description of the docking of the ship, the dropping of the gang-plank, and the disembarkation of the passengers will be given. The actual sounds attending the arrival, the chatter of the passengers and rumble of cargo winches will be picked up by KREG microphones as a background. Following this, microphone connections will be switched to the interior of the pier building, and checking of passengers' luggage by the customs inspectors, will be described. The freight end of the big liner's arrival will then be described. Please will tell how the valuable silk cargo is hoisted from the holds, rushed to waiting express trains, and started on its transcontinental race to the silk mills. The program will end as a locomotive and train are "high-balled" and started East. A concert orchestra under the direction of the Henry Damski will furnish musical interludes for the narration. KPSO will release the broadcast.

Among numbers to be included in her program are:

Selections from the opera "Mignon" by Thomas; "Maid of Cadiz," Delibes; "Ritournelle," Gounod; and "Slumber Song," Chaminade.

The English portion will include "Nightingale of Lincoln's Inn," Oliver; "On the Way to Kew."

Votes of five judges, including Irving Berlin and Paul Whiteman, will determine the winner of the Shrine convention song contest when the five best songs submitted are played and sung over KECA during a nation-wide NBC broadcast between 6:30 and 7 o'clock tonight. Wallace Beery and George Bancroft, screen stars, will act as joint masters of ceremonies. In addition to the contest music, listeners will hear selections by the Islam Temple Million Dollar Shrine band conducted by Henry Auerbach and the Islam Arabsians directed by Dr. Elmer Hinman, broadcasting from San Francisco.

E. A. O'Neal, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, will speak on the national Republican and Democratic conventions during the regular monthly Farm Bureau program over a coast-to-coast NBC net work between 9:30 and 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. The viewpoints of organized agriculture on the various questions which the conventions will face will be discussed by O'Neal. In addition to his message, Farm Bureau news from all parts of the country will be given by representatives of the organizations. KFI and KFSD will release the program.

65 ATTEND DINNER IN BALBOA CHURCH

NEWPORT BEACH, June 10.—Sixty-five people were in attendance at "church night" dinner program in the Balboa chapel last night. Dr. J. A. Geissinger, was the main speaker. The Rev. Russell Stroup, the resident pastor, gave a short after dinner talk and several solos were sung by Fred White, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Baker.

The dining room was tastily decorated with spring flowers and the dinner was prepared and served by the Balboa section of the Woman's Aid society. Mrs. Maude Henry managing.

A rising vote of thanks was given to the business houses that donated to the dinner.

Chamber Seeks Swimming Pool

FULLERTON, June 10.—The need of a public swimming pool for the city of Fullerton was brought up by members of the local chamber of commerce at its regular luncheon meeting yesterday. A committee consisting of Walter Humphreys, Dan O'Hanion and R. S. Gregory was appointed to make an investigation of the construction and maintenance cost of a pool similar to the pools in Anaheim and Brea.

Communications under this heading must be signed by the name of the writer. These communications express the opinions of those who write them. The opinions may or may not be the opinions of The Register.

Editor, Register: To the Editor of The Register: The communication in The Register, signed a "Taxpayer," affords me a great deal of interest. The questions set forth in the article reminded me of some of the "true and false" tests we have at college.

These questions were printed so that the readers might formulate some answers, but what should I do but figure out some more questions to be answered. My questions would read something like this: (In most cases I have substituted an answer at the end of the question.)

1. Mr. Taxpayer, is it not true that in your question number 14, you imply that Mr. Hoover substituted another name so he would be unknown to the general public? Have you not done likewise by substituting Taxpayer for your real name? I think so.

2. Do you think that these questions are set forth to stir up ill feeling against Mr. Hoover? I do.

3. Do you not think that it would have been more fair to the readers if you would have given them some clue to what the answers should have been—according to the "written records"? I do.

4. You claim that these are records that inspired these questions—don't you think that in fairness to all that you might tell us what these records are? I do.

5. Don't you think Mr. Taxpayer that if Mr. Hoover is the kind of a man that the questions imply that he is, that voters would have found out about it before now? I do.

6. Is it not true that if these questions were answered that the answers would be declared purged or false without foundation or fact? I think so.

Well, Mr. Taxpayer. I think that there are much bigger and finer jobs to tackle than to spend valuable time worrying about written records based upon rumor.

Editor Registered—With any apologies due those who hesitate to read complaints and criticisms I wish to comment on the veterans' bonus army assembling in Washington, D.C., and might add, the great army of needy people who haven't the courage to risk such a hazardous attempt to obtain aid from the federal government.

What is the purpose of a government anyway? Is it but a pompous organized figurehead to be admired or feared at a distance? I'm not a red sympathizer as far as my understanding of the term, and, in fact, am not in need, but just wish to suggest there must be something lacking in a perfectly good democracy with present conditions.

God has given the sunshine, rain and the increase; there is ample food and clothes, and yet so many people without necessities because the medium of exchange is so limited among them. Who controls or could control such a shortage but the national government? Cutting wages and salaries may balance the budget but not solve the financial crisis. Most of our kidnaps, murders, holdups and suicides are due to the scarcity of money or lawful means of attaining it. Those veterans, God bless them, if they would completely drop the prohibition issue, are the lads who back in 1917 and 1918 were being praised, petted, loved, honored and sometimes worshipped. Talk about keeping faith with the dead, how about the living?

MRS. W. R. BROWN.

Editor, The Register:

I wonder if you get the encouragement from the readers of The Register that I feel you deserve for your valuable editorials appearing in The Register from day to day. I have felt thankful hundreds of times for the stand you take on most all questions that confront the people of this generation, and I have tried to find a way to express my appreciation to you in a way that would be acceptable.

I am sure you will look beyond these words written with cold ink and get the real meaning of all I am trying to convey to you.

I want to congratulate you for the two editorials published in Saturday evening's Register: "Abdication of Beliefs Undermines Party Strength," and "Classification and Opinion."

These with other editorials with reference to prohibition, politics and religion, remind me of Nehemiah's answer to Sanballat: "I am doing a great work, and therefore I cannot come down."

You, Mr. Burke, are doing a great work, and I would encourage you to go on.

Reports Given At
Y. W. C. A. Session

FULLERTON, June 10.—The closing session of the year for the executive board of the Y. C. C. A. of this district was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ralph W. Irwin. The final reports and business matters of the year were considered.

Those considered were Miss Faustine Nenno, Miss Edna Munford, Miss Ruth Tilton, Mrs. William McFee, Mrs. Harry Simmons, of La Habra, Mrs. Arthur Staley and Mrs. Frank Rospay, of Placentia; Mrs. T. P. Walle, Mrs. W. W. Hay, Mrs. William Fanning and Mrs. Charles Haywo, of Brea; Mrs. Fred Johnson and Mrs. W. H. Bates, of Yorba Linda; Mrs. J. Antoinette Nenno, Mrs. George F. Tinsley, Miss Emma J. Kast and Miss Anita Shepardson, of Fullerton.

SCHOOL TEACHERS PLAN PARK VISIT

OCEANVIEW, June 10.—With pleasant summer vacation plans in prospect teachers of the Oceanview school are completing their final days work of the term.

Miss Merle Rosenbaum is considering the most extensive trip of the group. New Zealand is Miss Rosenbaum's objective. Relatives reside in that country and she expects to visit them.

Yosemite National park is the choice of several of the teachers. Miss Helen Shoneberg, Miss Susan Russell with Miss William Adams of the Brea school and formerly of Oceanview school, will form one party to this resort. Miss Ruby Gray is another interested in a contemplated vacation at Yosemite.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Tracy contemplate a motor trip to Bryce canyon and Salt Lake City some time this summer. Prof. R. A. Shostak, superintendent of the school, and his family leave Oceanview the last of this week for their home at Austin.

None of the teachers will attend summer school, the school board having passed a resolution with the cut in wages, that this would not be necessary this year.

Urge Sportsmen
To Take Interest
In Laws of State

FULLERTON, June 10.—Urging all sportsmen to take a keen interest in the laws of the state and to submit specific recommendations for constructive changes through their organizations, Assemblyman Ted Craig talked to members of the local Isaak Walton league Wednesday night.

He said the people were a bit inclined to view with disinterest the law makers during good times, but that they showed a real interest in government during times of depression. He mentioned some of the 51 laws which were passed in the last session of the legislature dealing with fish and game.

The local chapter last night went on record recommending that bantam pigeons in the state be thrown open for hunting during the quail season.

John Tuffee, of Placentia, showed motion pictures of his recent trip to South America.

SOCIETY ARRANGES FOR SCHOOL PICNIC

ORANGE, June 10.—Plans for the picnic to be held for children of St. John's Lutheran church school June 16 were made yesterday at the all day meeting of the Martha society at Walker Memorial hall. Mrs. Henry Kogler headed the hostess committee and a covered dish luncheon was served at noon and following the meeting coffee and cake were served.

Mrs. O. E. Gunther presided at the business session and arrangements were made to establish a fancy work booth at Irvine park, with Mrs. Fred Volberding in charge. The picnic will be an all day event and will open at 10:30 o'clock with drills and singing by the pupils of St. John's school. Contests and games will be enjoyed in the afternoon.

Yesterday's meeting was the last of the year. Activities of the society will be resumed in September, with Mrs. Gunther in charge as president; Mrs. Otto Ristow is treasurer, and Mrs. Alfred Priess, secretary.

SINGLE LOG HOME

SEQUOIA NATIONAL PARK, Calif., June 10.—One of the strangest homes in California is a log cabin made out of a single log. The house was hollowed out of the log by Hale Tharp, in 1858, and the tree trunk is 24 feet in diameter at the butt. The hollowed-out section extends back into the sequoia log for 56 feet.

YOUNG PEOPLE GIVE PROGRAM THIS EVENING

BRING HONOR TO PARENTS, STUDENTS TOLD IN TALK BY CHRISTIAN CHURCH PASTOR

ORANGE, June 10.—Opportunities for living the successful life, with its accompanying happiness and accomplishments, were presented to the 121 eighth grade graduates last night by the Rev. Franklin H. Minck, of this city, who delivered the commencement address at the Orange Union High school auditorium.

George W. Sherwood, principal of the Intermediate school, opened the meeting and presided during the evening. Mrs. Carl Sutton, outgoing president of the Orange City Council P.T.A., presented the diplomas, first giving a short talk during which she brought out that knowledge makes it possible to enjoy life to the fullest degree.

The Rev. Mr. Minck's address was on "Finding the Trail of Life." In opening, he stated that young people should try to make their trails of life those which will bring honor to their parents. These trails lead downward as well as upward, he said. While they are beginning to this new period of life, it is up to them to continue on the upward trend or pull away from the downward, he said.

Continuing, he stated that to gain the most from life, people should choose their friends, their books, their entertainment, etc., and heridity will have little to do with success or failure.

Last of all, the speaker advised the students against taking short cuts to life's pinnacles. There are some honest short cuts, but there are others which don't live up to what they promise. Long, hard, steady growth usually leads to the most promising climax, he stated.

He compared the trail of life to a trail up a steep mountain. During the first part of the journey, one sees solid rock, with openings to the right and left, but finally one reaches a flat top, where the view is grand.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Schoenfeld of River street, spent Wednesday in Rangoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Adams, 132 South Clark street, are planning to spend next week at Big Bear. They will be accompanied by their daughter, Betty, and son, Kerrie.

Mrs. Josephine Shell is planning to take an eastern trip in the near future.

Miss Marjorie Coffin, of Fort Morgan, Colo., is the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bly, 221 North Orange street.

She arrived in Orange the first of the week and expects to remain until the first of July. Miss Coffin will also visit her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Nichols, West Fifth street, Santa Ana, and relatives in Compton.

William Klaustermeyer, of this city, has returned to California from Concordia seminary, St. Louis, Mo., where he has been attending for the past year, and is spending a few days in San Francisco. He is expected to arrive in Orange very soon to spend the next year with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Klaustermeyer, 250 South Tustin avenue.

C. W. Dennis has moved from 578 North Lemon street to 376 South Center street.

B. M. Thompson, East Collins avenue, left this week on a two weeks' business trip to Indiana.

K. D. Powell and family have moved to 633 South Glassell street from 238 East Palmyra avenue.

Mrs. Susie McPherson and Mrs. Charles McMillan and daughter, Lois, of Walnut, spent Thursday in the R. W. Jones home, East Chapman avenue.

Mrs. Cora McPherson, of Spokane, Wash., who has been visiting friends in Santa Monica and Los Angeles, is again with her aunt, Mrs. Steven McPherson, of McPherson.

Daughters of Union Veterans will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock in Smith and Grote hall.

Mrs. Clara Whiteman and daughter, Mrs. Rose Purdie, and Mrs. Laura Bowen, of Orange, have returned from a vacation spent at Yosemite valley.

A Presbyterian banquet held at Placentia Wednesday evening was attended by a large group from Orange. Those in the party included the Rev. Robert Burns McAulay, pastor of the local church, and Lewis Bates, Mr. and Mrs. Chester G. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Crist, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Faris, Mr. and Mrs. George Stoner, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Green, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Durler, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Brownlee, Mrs. R. W. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Drake and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lowry.

SOCIAL OBSERVES FIFTH ANNIVERSARY

OLIVE, June 10.—The fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Lemke was celebrated Wednesday evening at the Lutheran social hall by a large group of relatives and friends. The anniversary party was arranged by Mrs. August Lemke, Mrs. Henry Henning, Mrs. Ber. Lemke, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Timken and Mrs. George Lemke.

Satisfaction comes from following this trail of experience until it is well learned. Then, there will be ample time to blaze new paths and branch out to experience, the pastor stated.

The Rev. Mr. Minck stated that逆境 is no real handicap, but is often an advantage. The boy or girl who has every opportunity at hand to gain an education may not do so, but will waste his time. Whereas the student who has hardships and obstacles to overcome may forge ahead to great heights, he said.

Continuing, he stated that to gain the most from life, people should choose their friends, their books, their entertainment, etc., and heridity will have little to do with success or failure.

Refreshments of peach whip, cake and coffee were served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lemke, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Paulus, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lemke, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Paulus, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Brejle, Mr. and Mrs. George Lemke, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Meierhoff, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ott, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Meierhoff, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Timken, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Timken, Walter Mueller, Robert Paulus Jr., Miss Meta Paulus, Mr. and Mrs. G. Beckmann, of Orange, Miss Clara Hein, Paul Beckmann and Arthur Schlueter of Orange, Mr. and Mrs. George Heinemann, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Henning, of Anaheim; Mr. and Mrs. Martin Heman, Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Heman and the guests of honor, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Lemke.

Work On Store Begins At Once

ORANGE, June 10.—The similarity of boys the world over was brought out in a talk given by Jack Payne, in charge of boys' work in the Y. M. C. A. at Rangoon, Burma, at a meeting of the Rotary club yesterday. Donald Smiley was program chairman.

Rangoon, the speaker said, is a city of 400,000 and it has been found in the course of the work, that the boys of the city, when given a chance are as fond of sports as boys in any other part of the world. Payne said that a spirit of sportsmanship is being developed by inter-school games which often ended in fights in former days if decisions were not approved by those attending. Now games are conducted in an orderly manner, the speaker said. Football is the favorite sport, he said.

A number of boys have been taken from the streets and housed, fed and educated through the Y. M. C. A., the speaker said. These boys, urchins of the city, who had no place to sleep and who stole their food, are being transformed into useful young men, he said.

The building is owned by Gus Struck and has been occupied by the Piggly Wiggly for the past 10 years. The galvanized iron building which is a part of the Struck property will be torn down to make room for trucking operations.

Mrs. Orlo Hobbs Honor Guest At Birthday Party

ORANGE, June 10.—Mrs. Orlo Hobbs, North Tustin avenue, was the honor guest at a surprise affair on the occasion of her birthday, when a group of close friends arrived at her home for an evening of music and cards. A covered dish dinner was served at small tables and bridge followed.

Mrs. Hobbs was presented with a number of lovely gifts. The party was planned by Mrs. Ray Valentine.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Timme and children, of Anaheim; Mr. and Mrs. Danner and children, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hobbs and son, Mr. and Mrs.

Ray Valentine and children, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Frye, and Willi Waechter.

PROGRAM ENJOYED BY LIONS OF BREA

BREA, June 10.—Brea Lions club program chairman Thursday noon was Dr. Glenn Curtis, who called upon Mrs. Carl Seaman, Yorba Linda, for several piano solos of her own composition. Mrs. Seaman presented Mrs. Elsie Moore, of Fullerton, who gave two of Mrs. Seaman's Negro spirituals in costume. Byron Curry, head of the county welfare department, gave a brief talk.

Installation of officers will be on June 23, at which time the wives of members will be guests. Carl O. Harvey and L. A. Hugue were chosen a committee to make necessary arrangements.

Visitors to the luncheon were Ralph M. Nicodemus, George McDonald and John Daugherty.

W. A. Culp was appointed delegate to the district convention July 28 in Los Angeles and Dr. J. J. Holland was made alternate.

The number of mental patients requiring institutional care is increasing at the rate of 200 a year in the province of Ontario, Canada.

QUITE A COME-DOWN

Remember Professor Picard's voyage into the stratosphere a year ago? Well, they're only now rescuing his balloon gondola from the snows of the Tyrolean Alps. Here you see workmen inspecting the gondola, deeply imbedded in a glacier after it plunged down a mountain-side during attempts to recover it from its original landing point.

COUNTY TOUR PLANNED FOR LION DELEGATES

A tour through Orange county, the heart of the Orange Empire, to be participated in by hundreds of visitors from all parts of the United States, Canada, Cuba, China and Hawaii, will be a feature of the sixteenth annual convention of the International Association of Lions clubs, to be held in Los Angeles July 18-22. It was announced today by Dr. Elliott Rowland, Santa Ana dentist, who is governor of district No. 4.

The tour will be conducted on Thursday, July 21, by Byrl Wing, Orange, chairman of a special committee now completing plans for the motorcade. Other members of the committee are Mike Hogue, Brea; C. E. Stewart, Santa Ana and Lotus Louden of Anaheim. It will visit Lions clubs at Brea, Fullerton, Anaheim, Garden Grove, Santa Ana and then proceed to Costa Mesa, Newport and Laguna Beach returning via San Juan Capistrano and Tustin.

Fifteen thousand delegates are expected at the convention to be presided over by President Julian C. Hyer, of Fort Worth, Texas. Probably the most famous Lion present will be Bernt Balchen, companion of Commander Richard Evelyn Byrd on his flights over the north and south poles, who will fly from Hasbrouck Heights, N. J., to attend.

Previous to the international convention the district convention will convene on the evening of July 18 with 5000 delegates from California, Nevada and Hawaii. It will be presided over by District Governor Rowland. The district governor's ball will be held at the Saal D'Oro in the Biltmore hotel on that evening.

CONTRACTORS GET WARNING ON STATE FEE

Calling attention of local contractors to the fact that they must renew their licenses under the state contractor's law by July 30 or pay a 100 per cent increase in the fee, Inspector Ray G. Hilsinger, of the state department of professional and vocational standards with headquarters at Los Angeles, today announced that he may be contacted for advice and assistance at the offices of the Orange County Builders' Exchange each Tuesday from 10 a.m. to 12 o'clock.

Beginning next Tuesday Inspector Hilsinger will be at the exchange office to answer questions relative to the contractor's law, hear any complaints and assist local contractors in renewing their licenses which expire with the close of the state's fiscal year, June 30.

"We cannot help the contractors unless they bring their complaints and troubles to us and we invite them to take advantage of this opportunity," Hilsinger said today. Hilsinger called attention to provisions of the contractor's law which defines a contractor as "person, firm, partnership, corporation, etc., who for either a fixed sum, price, fee, per centage, or other compensation, other than wages who undertakes or offers to undertake to construct, alter, repair, add to or improve any building, highway, road, railroad, excavation or other structure, project—or to do any part thereof." The statute also provides that subcontractors shall take out licenses.

65 LA HABRA GRADE PUPILS GET DIPLOMAS

LA HABRA, June 10.—Sixty-five pupils of the eighth grade of the La Habra grammar schools were graduated, with appropriate ceremonies Thursday afternoon in front of the Washington school building. This was the 35th class to be graduated from the La Habra schools.

The first graduating class was in 1897 and included four members, Clara Luehm, now Mrs. M. Jackson and who still resides in La Habra; T. B. Warne, rancher of Whittier; Myrtle Smith and Irving Calderwood, who have since moved away. William Snow was the teacher of the school at this time and Mr. Snow now resides with his family on Ocean avenue in La Habra.

The first grammar school in La Habra was started in 1898 in the Graves barn which was located at the corner of what is now Cypress and Central avenues. This was a six weeks summer school and was held to prove that a school was really needed in La Habra. When the time came for an election of trustees later, and the building of a permanent school, there was a very heated election. This election resulted in the school being located on the present site of the Washington school building on Central avenue. The property was sold to the district by Willets J. Hole, now a noted sportsman. The first teacher was Mrs. Minnie Newby, who until last year was principal of a school in Whittier. Miss Newby still resides in Whittier.

In 1898, when the school was founded, there were 25 students and during 1930-31, there were a total of 902 enrolled in the three large school buildings now serving La Habra. The first class to attend the Fullerton High school numbered four in 1900 and at present there are 216 in the high school and 34 in junior college going from La Habra, besides many graduates who are attending other schools and colleges in the state.

Twenty-four of the present graduation class started their schooling in the kindergarten of the La Habra schools and have continued through the eight grades together. In the past few years several pupils have had the distinction of graduation from the same school their parents attended and graduated. In this year's class, Raymond Launer, who has been a student in the La Habra school from the kindergarten through the eighth grade, is graduating from the school which his father, R. E. Launer, and four uncles attended and were graduated.

Millions in England last year numbered 540.

What it Costs to Stage the Olympic Games

The bill for transporting, housing and feeding the army of athletes will be a cool million dollars, while construction costs and "incidentals" will exceed another five million

A room in one of the 550 cottages erected in Olympic Village to accommodate the visiting athletes. . . . Each cottage contains two rooms like this one, from which the roof and one wall have been removed to make a clear view possible.

By ERSKINE JOHNSON

WHEN the sons of ancient Greece trekked to Olympia in Elis thousands of years ago for the games of the Olympiad, financial worries were at a minimum.

Only a small amount of money, meager records show, was necessary to enable the flower of Greece's manhood to participate in these ancient sport celebrations.

But as the games of the Olympiad were carried down through the centuries, elaborate preparations resulted in increased expenditures.

The expenditures will reach a high peak this summer when the tenth Olympic games are held in Los Angeles. The financial aspect of what has become an international institution reaches astounding proportions.

So that "the Olympic torch may pursue its way through the ages," $6,041,000 will have been spent when the last event of the 1932 Olympic games is staged in the west coast city.

Construction of nine stadiums, auditoriums and water courses, with seating capacities ranging from 2000 to 105,000, and erection of a miniature city for the housing of 2000 athletes during the games, has sent expenses of the first Olympic games to be held in the United States climbing skyward.

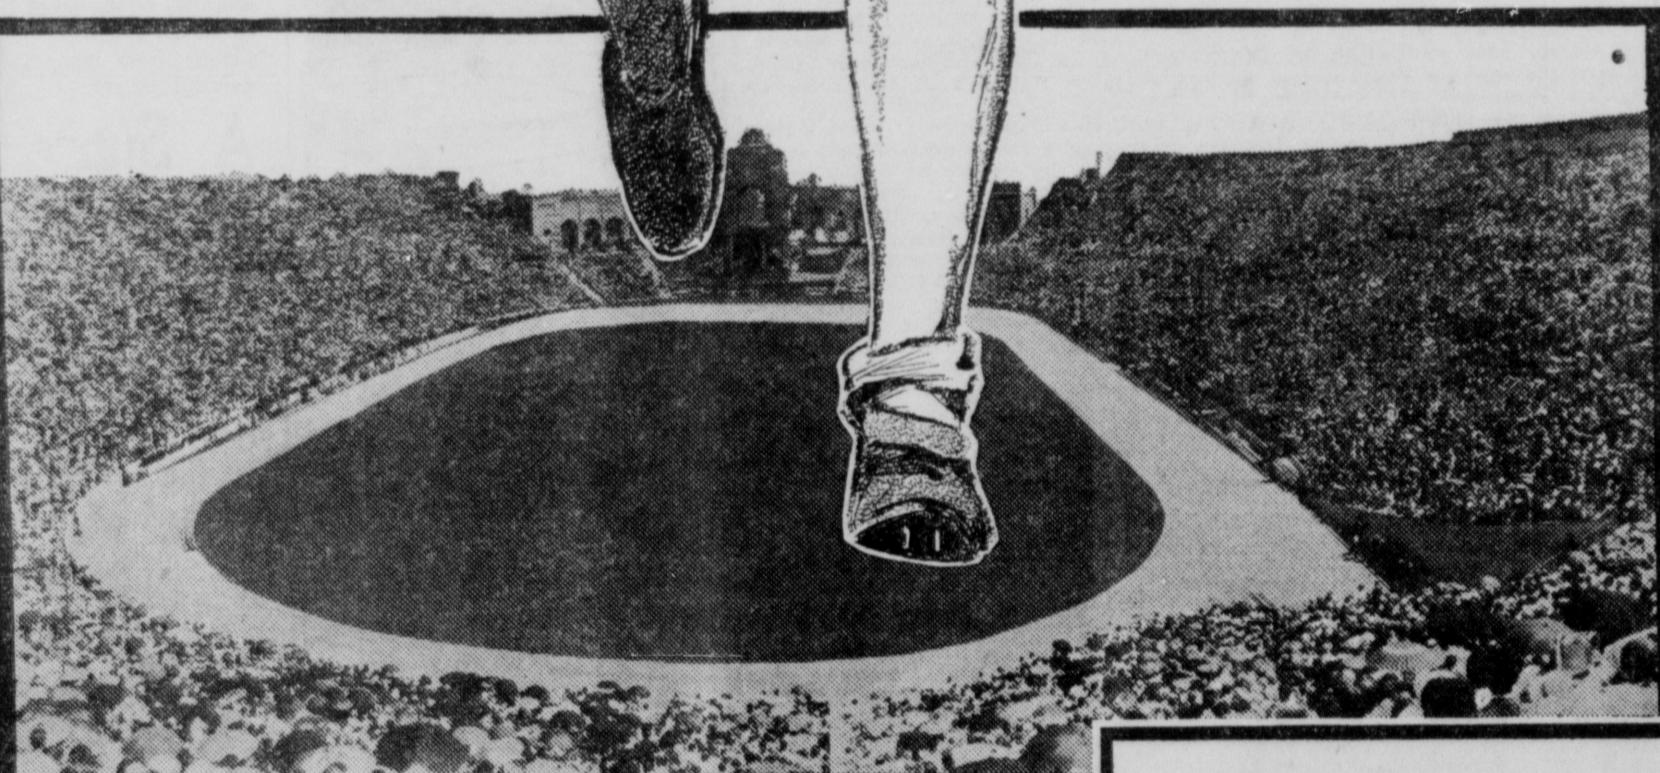

THE state of California and city and county of Los Angeles already have spent millions in preparation for the games.

To insure financial success of the games, the people of the state three years ago voted a $1,000,000 bond issue, the money being used by the organizing committee for construction work with the understanding that it would be returned to the coffers of the state from profits of the games.

And nearly $2,000,000 more will be spent before the games, to be held from July 30 to August 14, are concluded, officials estimate, to care for transportation and housing of the athletes in Los Angeles, publicity for the games, printing of 15 tons of tickets and making of hundreds of silver and bronze medals for victorious athletes, not to mention other expenses which appear at the last moment.

Approximately $1,000,000 will be expended by the United States and 49 other countries to send their athletes to Los Angeles for the games, and to house and feed them during their stay in the 1932 Olympic city.

This item is quite in contrast to the expenses of the ancient participants of the games, who either walked or rode in horse-drawn chariots to Olympia to celebrate the games, and slept in tents pitched on the plains until the games were completed.

The famous Los Angeles Olympic Stadium, which has 105,000 reserved seats. . . . This photo shows the stadium, in which the main events of the games will be held, as it looked when 100,000 people entered it last fall for a pontifical mass celebrated by the Most Rev. Pietro Fumasoni-Biondi, Apostolic delegate from the Vatican.

This year the athletes will be carried to the scene of the games in luxurious ocean liners, some in airplanes and others in trains, all of which will add greatly to the expense of the four-year celebration.

ACCORDING to figures produced by the organizing committee of the games, approximately $480 per athlete will be spent by each country entered for transportation and housing. Los Angeles officials of the games have informed the various nations that the athletes can be housed and fed during their 16-day stay in Los Angeles at a cost of $2 per day for each athlete.

Basing the figures on these estimates means that nearly one million dollars will be the cost of the games to sponsors of the athletes.

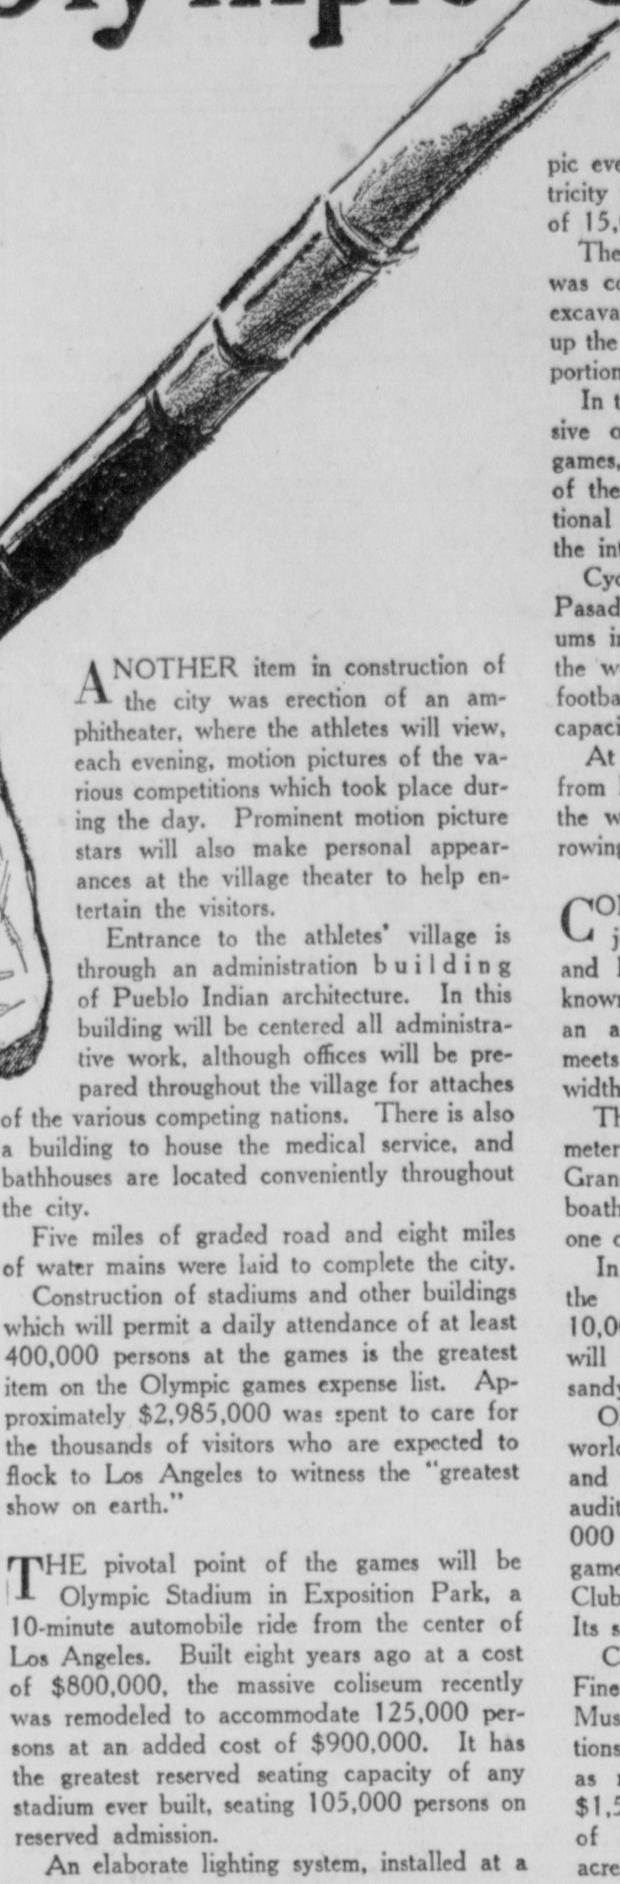

Unlike participants in the early games in Greece, who were forced to shift for themselves before and after their events in Olympia, athletes of the 1932 games will be housed in a model city, built a few miles from the downtown district of Los Angeles at a cost of $500,000.

OLYMPIC Village, where visiting athletes will be housed and fed during the games, is unique in the history of the international gatherings. It was built on a tract of 313 acres of land directly west of Olympic Stadium. It is located on a range of hills between the mountains and sea and commands an excellent view.

Five hundred and fifty specially-designed and fine-looking portable houses, each measuring 24 by 10 feet and containing two rooms, accommodating two men to a room, were erected at the site. They are furnished with four beds, four chairs, two tables, two rugs, linens, blankets, lights and plumbing fixtures.

Erection of the village means that for the first time since the athletes of ancient Greece pitched their tents together, participants in the Olympic games will be housed and fed in a single, complete community especially designed for that purpose.

A huge dining hall, which is subdivided into 40 private kitchens and dining rooms, giving each country's team private facilities in which their chefs will prepare their own food, is a feature of the little city.

ANOTHER item in construction of the city was erection of an amphitheater, where the athletes will view, each evening, motion pictures of the various competitions which took place during the day. Prominent motion picture stars will also make personal appearances at the village theater to help entertain the visitors.

Entrance to the athletes' village is through an administration building of Pueblo Indian architecture. In this building will be centered all administrative work, although offices will be prepared throughout the village for attaches of the various competing nations. There is also a building to house the medical service, and bathhouses are located conveniently throughout the city.

Five miles of graded road and eight miles of water mains were laid to complete the city.

Construction of stadiums and other buildings which will permit a daily attendance of at least 400,000 persons at the games is the greatest item on the Olympic games expense list. Approximately $2,985,000 was spent to care for the thousands of visitors who are expected to flock to Los Angeles to witness the "greatest show on earth."

THE pivotal point of the games will be at the Olympic Stadium in Exposition Park, a 10-minute automobile ride from the center of Los Angeles. Built eight years ago at a cost of $800,000, the massive coliseum recently was remodeled to accommodate 125,000 persons at an added cost of $900,000. It has the greatest reserved seating capacity of any stadium ever built, seating 105,000 persons on reserved admission.

An elaborate lighting system, installed at a pic events in the stadium at night. The electricity used is sufficient to light an average city of 15,000 persons.

The great stadium is elliptical in shape, and was constructed on the cut and fill plan, by excavating for the bowl and throwing the earth up the sides to form a solid foundation for that portion of the structure above the ground level.

In this great stadium will be held the impressive opening and closing ceremonies of the games, track and field sports, gymnastics, finals of the equestrian sports, field hockey, the national demonstration of American football, and the international exhibition of lacrosse.

Cycling events will be held in picturesque Pasadena Rose Bowl, one of the oldest stadiums in the west and made famous throughout the world by the New Year's Day east-west football games. This stadium has a seating capacity of 85,511 persons.

At Long Beach, oceanside city 28 miles from Los Angeles, one of the finest courses in the world has been built for the spectacular rowing races of the games.

CONSTRUCTED at a cost of $250,000, jointly paid by the cities of Long Beach and Los Angeles and the state, the course, known as Long Beach Marine Stadium, forms an arm of picturesque Alamitos Bay and meets all Olympic requirements as to length, width and depth.

The rowing course is 2000 meters long, 130 meters wide and two and one-half meters deep. Grandstands, officials' stands, landings and boathouses were completed recently, making it one of the finest courses in the world.

In addition to those who will find seats in the grandstands, which will accommodate 10,000 persons, more than 100,000 spectators will be able to find standing room along the sandy banks of the course.

Olympic Auditorium, famous in the sports world, will be the scene of the boxing, wrestling and weight lifting events of the games. The auditorium, built privately at a cost of $500,000 several years ago in anticipation of the games, is owned by the Los Angeles Athletic Club and is the largest of its kind in the west. Its seating capacity is 10,400.

Competitions in fine arts will be in Olympic Fine Arts Museum (Los Angeles County Museum), which houses world-famous collections of history, science and art. The Museum, as remodeled by the county at a cost of $1,500,000 for the games, covers nine acres of ground and provides approximately 30 acres of floor space for the exhibits.

AQUATIC events of the games will be held in the large, new Olympic Swimming Stadium, which was erected in Exposition Park, almost under the walls of the main Olympic Stadium, at a cost of $250,000, which was borne by the city of Los Angeles and the state.

The pool is 20 by 50 meters and ranges in depth from one and five-tenths meters to five meters, including a regulation area for water polo. Under-water lights and a heating plant were installed to make the plunge suitable for night swimming and diving.

Other equipment of the stadium includes two-meter diving boards, one three-meter board, and two diving platforms, one a five-meter and the other a 10, and 65 dressing rooms. Two grandstands erected on opposite sides of the open air pool provide seats for 10,000 persons.

The yacht races of the games will be held at Los Angeles Harbor in full view of the thousands of spectators who will find points of vantage along the towering cliffs of Point Farnim and on the massive breakwater which juts far out into the ocean at the harbor's mouth. The yacht races will be free to the public, the only event of the games for which no admission is charged.

The spacious grounds of the beautiful Riviera Country Club, near Santa Monica, beach city 25 minutes by automobile from Olympic Village, have been selected as the site for the equestrian sports, exclusive of the finals, which will be held at Olympic Stadium.

The events will be staged in a natural amphitheater formed by the walls of a ravine. Stands were erected to accommodate 8000 spectators and improvements made on the grounds at a cost of $25,000 to directors and members of the club.

Since return of at least a large part of the $1,000,000 state bond issue is the only direct obligation of officials of the games, Olympic authorities, headed by William May Garland, Los Angeles civic leader, expect to break even on the finances. The chance of making a small profit, which would be divided equally between the state, City of Los Angeles, County of Los Angeles and Long Beach, is expected.

FINDINGS OF SENATE ABOUT BOOZE TOLD

When the brewers had the stranglehold upon the nation prior to prohibition the senate investigated the situation. They reported their findings in documents, (see reports of the subcommittee on the United States judiciary United States senate, sixty-sixth congress).

At that time Mr. Hugh F. Fox was secretary of the brewers' association and was assertedly responsible for much of the program shown below. His name occurs frequently in the reports of the senate findings.

The same gentleman bobs up again in connection with the work of the association against the prohibition amendment.

This is what the senate found in the piping times before prohibition when we had CONTROL BY THE STATES:

With regard to the conduct and activities of the brewing and liquor interests, the committee is of the opinion that the record clearly establishes the following facts:

1. That they have furnished large sums of money for the purpose of secretly controlling newspapers and periodicals.

2. Succeeded in controlling primaries and elections.

3. Contributed enormous sums of money to political campaigns in violation of federal and state laws.

4. Extracted pledges from candidates before elections.

5. Subsidized the public press.

6. Boycotted unfriendly manufacturers and mercantile concerns.

7. Suppressed and coerced persons hostile to them.

8. Created and financed their own political organizations.

9. Organized clubs, leagues and corporations for the purpose of secretly carrying on their activities.

10. Improperly treated funds expended for political purposes and failed to return same for taxation.

11. Through a cunningly devised plan of advertising and subsidization they undertook to control and dominate the foreign language press.

12. Subsidized authors of recognized standings to write articles for standard periodicals.

13. Had a working agreement between the brewers and distillers for continuing funds for political expenditures.

State News

The coming session of the legislature in January is going to be one of the most important in the history of the state.

Some of the big problems to be put before the legislature will be the state-wide water conservation and economy.

Along economy lines, agriculture and other interests in the state are going to insist that the taxation burden be taken away, to some extent from the real estate. Real estate is bearing an unjust burden at the present time.

GOVERNMENT RECORDS AND COMMON SENSE SHOW FALSE CLAIMS OF WET ADVOCATES

THE WETS CLAIM THAT PROHIBITION HAS INCREASED DRINKING!

They know this is something no man can prove or disprove so they feel free to make a UNIVERSAL AFFIRMATIVE WHICH sounds impressive but which has no foundation in fact!

IN COMING TO A CONCLUSION ABOUT THIS MATTER USE YOUR EYES.

The effects of alcohol on the body are visible. They may be seen by ANYONE. Where are the BEER BELLIES? Where are the bloated faces and the BIG RED NOSES? Where ARE THE BLOOD SHOT EYES? Where are the vomiting, reeling specimens who in pre-prohibition days were so much in evidence. Has anyone seen them. Can anyone find them on our streets, in the alleys or in the homes today? USE YOUR EYES.

Unsafe For Women

Mrs. Dorsey, former superintendent of public schools of Los Angeles, says when she used to go to her office before we had prohibition she had to pass SEVEN SALOONS and that she was very frequently accosted and insulted by drunken men. THAT WOULD BE IMPOSSIBLE IN LOS ANGELES TODAY.

The depression and the desire to reduce taxes is going to concentrate the attention of the people more and more on the cost of crime in California, particularly along the lines of the expense of our penal institutions.

The next session of the legislature will undoubtedly again consider legislation providing full-time work for all the convicts in the two penitentiaries. The Kline Bill, at the last session of the legislature, provided work for the convicts and was introduced by such men as William Green, President, American Federation of Labor. It also received the unanimous enthusiasm of the Federation of Women's Clubs at their state meeting at Fresno with one thousand delegates present.

It passed the Assembly but the Senate Committee on Prisons and Reformatories lacked one vote.

If this Bill was put into execution in California, several million dollars each year would be saved the taxpayer while the humanitarian results would be of unestimated value.

According to information received from Sacramento, an effort will be made in the legislature to repeal the federal plan of re-apportionment which went into effect in this state several years ago. The entire plan will go into effect with the coming session as there was some delay due to a referendum on the act. This failed, and the general opinion was the question was settled, but now comes the news from the south that an attempt will be made to repeal the act, by which most of the countries are receiving only one senator. The purpose of the repeal is to elect senators again under the old system according to population, and the argument advanced is that Southern California, while having control at present of the Assembly because of its tremendous population, would also have control of the Senate for the same reason.

At the next session, Los Angeles will only have one senator notwithstanding its huge population, while other countries throughout the state will also have one senator, making the smaller counties on a par with the larger counties.

Grecian women counted their ages from their marriage.

Challenged Wet Crusaders

Dr. Shields of the New Jersey Anti-Saloon League looked around and could not find evidence of any such conditions. He therefore challenged the Wet Crusaders to show him the conditions named, agreeing not to use the information thus gained to the hurt of anyone involved.

Upon appointment, Dr. Shields met the representatives of the Wet Crusaders in Philadelphia and spent from early evening until midnight going the rounds of the places that they were able to show. Dr. Shields has written an illuminating account of the evening's experience. The best the wet Crusaders could do was to show Dr. Shields EIGHT PLACES and in some of these no drinking was going on. Only about 20 people in all were found in these eight places.

Doctor Shields could have shown more than the total number in any saloon in the old pre-prohibition days!

When asked to explain the situation, Dr. Shields said that the Wet Crusaders were young men who apparently were earnest and sincere but judging from their ages he doubted if any of them had ever seen an open saloon. And, to them the conditions seemed very bad. To one who had lived through the saloon period the improvement for the better was so marked as to be almost incredible.

Wet Statements Not True

THERE IS DOUBTLESS TOO MUCH DRINKING GOING ON AT THIS TIME IN THE UNITED STATES. SOCIAL DRINKING ESPECIALLY IS A NATIONAL PROBLEM. BUT THAT THERE IS MORE DRINKING NOW THAN IN THE DAYS OF THE OLD SALOON, CANNOT BE PROVED AND IF YOU ARE OLD ENOUGH TO REMEMBER THE OPEN SALOON YOUR OWN EYES WILL TELL YOU THAT STATEMENTS TO THIS EFFECT ARE NOT TRUE.

If your own eyes do not give a sufficient answer to the wet claims, USE RELIABLE STATISTICS.

The wet statistics are not reliable. They are often arrived at by adding two UNKNOWN QUANTITIES together to get a desired result!

But there are reliable statistics. The United States Government has produced statistical abstracts, census figures and other compilations which have never been shown to be unreliable.

Government Statistics

THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT PUBLISHES a document through the Department of Justice in Washington which shows all possible sources of production. This document gives the Government figures. It also gives the wet figures as prepared by Mr. Fox, the old secretary of the Brewers association and now identified with the Association Against the Eighteenth Amendment. It also gives the figures of the dry forces as prepared by Mr. Corridini. The document then sums up the whole question by the CONCLUSION that the statements that there is more drinking in the United States now than before Prohibition are UNWARRANTED and then gives figures to show that there is 65 per cent less drinking in the United States now than there was in the days of the saloon.

THE WORLD ALMANAC has been another statistical authority that has been generally accepted as being reasonably reliable. Surely it cannot be charged with being a dry publication.

FOR NEW YORK CITY—

1915—Homicides	452
1930—Homicides	377
1915—Other Felonies	14,044
1930—Other Felonies	13,350
1915—Intoxication	22,635
1930—Intoxication	11,408

And all this in spite of an immense increase in population. What about increase in crime "due to Prohibition?"

For NEW YORK STATE—

Figures Show Decrease

1915—Total crimes against the person and against property, etc.	10,158
1930—Total crimes against the person and against property, etc.	4,424

WE CHALLENGE THE WETS TO SHOW ANY AUTHENTIC FIGURES (GIVING SOURCES) THAT WILL PROVE THEIR CONTENTION THAT THERE IS MORE DRINKING IN THE UNITED STATES NOW THAN THERE WAS BEFORE PROHIBITION.

WE CAN PRODUCE FIGURES TO SHOW THAT DRINKING HAS DECREASED IN THE UNITED STATES BY OVER 60 PER CENT; at the same time DRINKING UNDER GOVERNMENT CONTROL IN CANADA HAS INCREASED ABOUT 50 PER CENT. HERE IS A SPREAD OF OVER 100 PER CENT BETWEEN THE OFFICIAL FIGURES OF THE TWO COUNTRIES IN FAVOR OF PROHIBITION.

COMMENT ON CURRENT NEWS OF CHURCHES

At the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church Dr. J. H. Arnup of the United Church of Canada gave a fraternal address in which among other points he stressed the fine spirit of unity and spiritual fellowship which results in the unifying of Christian faiths and the deeper religious impulse for service for Christ. He stated that there were 1,200 communities that had local union churches before the general union took place. In the first six years more than 800 other churchs came together, reducing the competition of the churches. Over 150,000 were added on profession of faith, during the first six years of union.

Bishop Arthur J. Moore, of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, in his address before the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church held recently in Atlantic City, also spoke on the subject of unification between the two great Methodisms. He said, "The baffling difficulties and serious dangers which today confront evangelical Christianity make it practically impossible to fulfill our task if we continue to divide our interests. Only united and concentrated mobilized experience and sacrificial devotion to the great cause of Christ and His Church will suffice. If we have done well by going along in our own way, the challenges of the united force of our two bodies to meet the world situations is for us to realize and set ourselves to the task, with the assurance that we could do far better together."

Observers who were optimistic about Methodist Episcopal and Methodist Protestant union, and United Presbyterian and Northern Presbyterian union, a few months ago, will have to content themselves by waiting for another decade or two. In the Presbyterian camp there is much harping and criticism of the proposed basis of union, which has to do with the standards of the United Presbyterian Church. An increasing number object to these standards as being too liberal theologically, and a fear that, to realize a union with the larger group will swamp their traditions and institutions. Many Methodist Protestants feel they will be completely submerged if they join the Methodist Episcopal fold.

The Federated Council of the Churches of Christ in America is giving its moral support at the General Disarmament conference to the proposals of the American delegation, for the abolition of aggressive armaments. Tanks, heavy mobile guns, the military weapons, are described by Hugh S. Gibson, head of the American delegation, as arms "of a peculiarly offensive character." Other nations classify battleships, bombing planes, and submarines as weapons of an aggressive type. The Federated Council believes the abolishing of weapons of this kind would bring about a more secure sense of security among the nations, develop a larger feeling of good will and establish mutual confidence among the peoples of the world, and result in paring down military budgets and the easing of tax burdens.

The annual meeting of the National Council of Northern Baptist men will meet in San Francisco, California, July 12-17, with Dr. W. C. Coleman, presiding. Annual reports and election of officers will occupy the opening sessions for two days. On July 16, at 6 p. m., there will be a men's banquet with Dr. George W. Truett, of Dallas, Texas, as guest speaker, with brief addresses by others. Among the subjects which will be presented are: "How to Recruit Men for Christ," "How to Christianize Fellowship," "How to Develop Youth," "How to Finance Christian Work," "How to Maintain Men's Bible Classes," "How to Convert the Converted." The Baptist Men's Council of California with Mr. J. F. Woodward as chairman, will act as hosts to the men attending the convention.

The World's Christian Fundamentals' association, comprising fundamentalists of all denominations will gather in Columbus, Ohio, June 19-20 for their annual convention.

How Government 'Control' Actually Works In Practice

Some Canadian figures follow: Reports of the prisons and reformatories of the Province of Ontario for 1930 show that from 1926 to 1930: murder increased 81 per cent, manslaughter increased 51 per cent; attempted suicide 625 per cent, crime against persons 65 per cent, crime against property 88 per cent, liquor law violation 220 per cent.

The British Columbia liquor board reports that the sale of hard liquor has increased 50 per cent.

The Montreal Star reports that drunkenness among women has increased 53 per cent.

The Alberta liquor board reports that "Our greatest problem is moonshine in the country districts."

Protestants Have Broadcast Station

Protestant churches in New South Wales now own and control their own radio broadcasting station. Liquor advertisements, which used to get mixed up with sermons over the old commercial stations, will be absolutely taboo.

SARAZEN WINS BRITISH OPEN GOLF CROWN

A number of requests for "the spikes high, and cut Moriarty's life story" of the mobbing of George have been made of this department. Several have written to ask how group of ball players, in whom he is supposed to exist a bit of fair play, could so forget themselves as to pick on one man but there is no inside story, less it be that the White Sox some time have looked upon George as their special enemy. It common knowledge that George at all times has cast speculations the managerial abilities of Leo Durocher, who was one of those for his part in the attack.

Blue, White Sox first baseman, who had no part in the affair, has regarded Mr. Moriarty as an unkindly eye ever since he played under George's management in Detroit, and was traded down the river to the Browns the man who now is umpiring.

WHY, MILTON!

But one of the funniest statements growing out of the fracas is that of Milt Gaston, the man who was the first to accept Moriarty's challenge.

Gaston is now modestly willing to admit that he was really winning when it was stopped. That is true. Phil Scott ought back to this country and make up with a demonstration of a man can win a fight after has been knocked out.

Our own idea of the bout between Moriarty and Gaston is that it had not been stopped when it was. Big Ed Morris did not be the only pitcher in combat this year.

FROM THE OLD DAYS

L. G. Salingen, Detroit newspaper man, kicks in with two using incidents of Moriarty's hurly-burly days as third man and captain of the Tigers, when the Tigers had such on the roster as Cobb, Ross, Crawford, Schaefer, Bush, Keary, Schmidt, Mullin, Donohue, Siever, Killian, Summers, tyne and Jones. George was lighter then, as now, and his resiliency made him the idol of the Detroit fans. One day Hobie Ferris of the Browns came sliding into third,

EEG FELLERS' DEDICATE NEW GARDEN STADIA

GREEN CATS IN RALLY TO WIN: BANK WINNER

BY HENRY McLEMORE

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, June 10.—(UPI)—He was just a bowl of wrestlers for the 25,000 of us who journeyed out Long Island way last night to watch the Messrs. Dick Shukat and "Strangler" Lewis formally dedicate Madison Square Garden's new and scrumptious home-in-the-round.

It was the most impressive dedication of all time. Coming on a man who attended such high class dedications as those of the coliseum at Rome, the Taj Mahal at Agra, the Bok Bird tower at Lake Wales and Dewdrop Inn at Lincoln, Neb., this high praise, indeed.

The entire dedication was taken care of by wrestlers—fat wrestlers, skinny wrestlers, groaning wrestlers, grunting wrestlers, serious wrestlers and frivolous wrestlers. There isn't anything like a dedicating wrestler to do a piece of dedicating brown. He goes doubles—in spades—when Joe Humphreys of the liver lungs, is on hand to aid and abet them.

Begin Ceremonies Early

The dedication ceremonies started just as a flaming sun sank beneath the towering chimney of the National Biscuit company, which majestically rears its red stick skeleton a few paces outside the Garden's sunken garden. The first dedicators called in the ring by Humphreys were George Calza, introduced as the breath-taking Eye-talian, and Earle Freeman, the fat boy of the Bronx.

They were followed by Ivan Lestovich, pride of Russia, and George Hagen of the United States marines. The dedication ceremonies were held up for a few minutes while Humphreys struggled with the Russian's name. Joe finally got it out. He made up for this at the end of the bout, however, with a flashing bit of it. In announcing the winner, he said Lestovich won with an airplane spin and a caviar lunch. It panned the crowd.

Mons. Curley signed the second this bout ended, Mons. Jacques Curley signalled his handlers to open the ornate gates, and out galloped Leon Finckel, the ponderous Pole, and Fritz Kley, the German contortionist. This pair went Firmly planted in second place and meanin' to stay there, Westminster's high-falutin' Aviators descend into Santa Ana's Bowl tonight to show the folk the National Night league's most improved baseball team.

As the pitcher started his windup, Moriarty dashed for home. The pitcher, who had been expecting Moriarty's move, cut short his windup and pegged to Carrigan, who tagged George as he slid into the plate.

Carrigan, however, had been nursing a chew of scrap tobacco, and at that time had a mouthful of the brown juice. After tagging Moriarty for the putout that ended the ball game, he let loose a load of juice in Moriarty's face.

THEN CAME THE RIOT

George jumped up, pulled Carrigan's mask off and swung on his jaw. Bill went down and several players pulled Moriarty off. The crowd swept onto the field.

Carrigan got up and ran for the visitors' dugout. With the mob in pursuit he climbed to the top of the dugout, where he was joined by Uncle Frank Navin, owner of the Tigers. Navin pleaded for Carrigan's life, and held the attention of the crowd until policemen arrived and escorted Carrigan to the clubhouse.

A mob waited for hours for Carrigan to emerge from the clubhouse. Finally he escaped in a groundskeeper's disguise, with raincoat, hip boots and an old slouch hat, walking through the mob unrecognized.

Win Six of Nine Starts

This was one of Westminster's three setbacks in nine starts. The Flyers also lost to Whittier, 4-3, and to Anaheim in a 20-2 night game, but licked everybody else—Anaheim 6-5, Long Beach 5-0 and Huntington Beach 2-0 and Olive 2-1.

U. S. LEADS 3-0 IN BATTLE FOR WIGHTMAN CUP

WIMBLEDON, England, June 10.—(UPI)—The United States scored a clean sweep of the opening day matches of the Wightman Cup tennis competition with Great Britain today when Mrs. Helen Wills Moody, champion of them all, defeated Mrs. Eileen Bennett Whittingstall, 6-2, 6-4.

Prior to Mrs. Moody's triumph, Miss Helen Jacobs, a sister Californian, had defeated Miss Dorothy Round, 6-4, 6-3.

The United States made it three in a row when Miss Jacobs and Mrs. Harper defeated Miss Round and Mrs. Mitchell, 6-4, 6-1.

With three victories already tucked away, America needs but one triumph in any of tomorrow's four matches to assure success.

Art Hernandez knocked out Bill Wana of Westminster in the third heat of the special event. Wana had a slight edge after two rounds, but dropped like a log when Hernandez, Anaheim 138-pounder, whipped across a terrific right that found a resting place on Bill's chin.

Raoul Solis outboxed Andy Luhan and got Nyland's decision, although the two judges differed in opinion, one going for Solis, one for Luhan.

Art Whittingstall ran up a lead of 4-0 in the second set but Mrs. Moody, determined not to run her record of not having lost a set since 1926, turned on the pressure and streaked off six games in a row.

The Californian ended the match with a steaming service ace.

U. S. DOUBLES PLAYERS SCORE VICTORY

EASTBOURNE, England, June 10.—(UPI)—The American doubles team of Sidney Wood and Gregory Mangin defeated the British combination of Dr. J. Colin Gregory and Ian Collins, 6-3, 6-3, 5-7, 10-8, in the Anglo-American tennis tournament today.

Mr. Whittingstall ran up a lead of 4-0 in the second set but Mrs. Moody, determined not to run her record of not having lost a set since 1926, turned on the pressure and streaked off six games in a row.

OLYMPIC HOPES

HEINZ SHADES RAY CAMPO IN DELHI SUB GO

The Orange County Athletic club today needed to frame no apologies but Promoter Elmer Wilson and Matchmaker Kid Mexico owed a debt of gratitude to Ray Campo and Sailor Johnny Heinz, a couple of little dynamo who saved a delicate situation for the house last night as "pinch-hitters" for Henry Pena and John Stevens, advertised main-eventers.

Pena reported ill, and was excused from duty by the club's physician, Dr. W. P. Baker.

Wrapped up in a big overcoat, Pena appeared in the ring, along with Stevens, to show the promoters' good will.

The crowd was a bit disgruntled at the announcement of Pena's indisposition but forgot its peevish in the thrill of watching Brix and Campo battle as sincerely as the promoters' good will.

Approximately 20 monotype boats, made up of two boats from each of the member clubs of the Southern California Yachting association will battle for the honor.

Award Harbor U.S. Trials For Boat Races

A series of six elimination races for the purpose of selecting the fortunate skippers who will represent the United States in the Olympic monotype boat races will be held July 11-12 at Newport Harbor, it was announced.

Details of the races will be determined by a committee of five. One member from the Balboa Yacht club, one from Newport Harbor Yacht club and three from the Olympic committee. This committee will decide the course over which the races will be sailed and other necessary details. In case of a tie, the decision of the Olympic committee will be final.

JONES' RECORD BROKEN: SMITH OF U. S. SECOND

SANDWICH, England, June 10.—(UPI)—Gene Sarazen of New York today won the British Open golf championship. His rounds of 70 and 74 today gave him an aggregate of 283.

In winning the championship Sarazen established a new low aggregate for the event. His total of 283 supplanted the former record of 285, made by Bobby Jones in 1927.

Secondary honors went to Mac Smith of New York, perennial contender, and supposedly the world's best golfer, who has never won a major championship.

Smith had a sparkling round of 70 in the final, after a morning 71, and his aggregate was 288.

Havers aggregate of 289 was good enough for third place. He had

THE TINYMINES

STORY BY HAL COCHRAN - PICTURES BY KING

The Tinymines were tickled pink. Said Happy Duncy, "Gee, 'Hey! to think that we are going to have a ride right in a big parade."

"We'll sit upon this wagon, high, and wave at folks as we pass by. Tonight we will be dreaming of the hit that we have made."

Just then they heard a bugle blow and Scouty shouted, "Here we go! The parade is starting from the grounds. Say! When do we fill in?"

"Don't worry," said a man, nearby. "Just sit real quiet, lads, and I will turn and wave my hand when it is your turn to begin."

And so the Tinymines sat real still. It really was a wondrous thrill to see the sparkling horses pass, with wagons painted bright.

Soon Scouty said, "Unless I'm wrong, this great parade is very long. If anyone stands up to see it all, they'll stand all night." (Copyright, 1932, NEA Service, Inc.)

BONERS

When the buzzard sounded, we silently marched from the room.

BONERS are actual humorous tid-bits found in examination papers, essays, etc., by teachers.

A requiem is a mass meeting of the dead.

Originally missionaries were groups of men formed by a lot of Indians who were savages.

On the Elizabethan stage, were two clocks, one going fast, the other slow.

Most of Milton's poems were written after death.

The people put their heads together and in this way formed a statue to the remembrance of their beloved king.

STUDENT UNDER NOTED TEACHER OPENS STUDIO

That dream of every true musician of studying piano under the greatest of all European maestros, Leschetizky, was realized by Mrs. Vollmer, well-known Southland piano teacher and exponent of the Leschetizky method, who recently announced her decision to open a studio here. Mrs. Vollmer was a personal pupil of the great teacher, who numbered among his students such world-famous artists as Paderewski, Gabrilowitch, Goodman, Schnabel and Leginski, among scores of others known to fame.

Mrs. Vollmer lives at 2013 South Main street.

SANTA FE PLANNING TRIP FOR CHILDREN

Through cooperation of school superintendents of Orange and San Diego counties preparations are being made to take 2000 Orange county school children on an all-day excursion and outing to San Diego via the Santa Fe on June 18, it was announced today by C. L. Lindsey, traveling passenger agent of the Santa Fe.

Arrangements for the excursion are being made in Orange county by County Superintendent of Schools Ray Adkinson. A special train will leave Fullerton at 7:30 a. m. and Santa Ana at 8 a. m.

Arriving in San Diego the children will be taken in charge by a staff of school officials and escorted to Balboa park and the Zoo where all entertainment will be free and three bands will present concerts.

The children will leave Santa Diego at 4:30 and arrive in Santa Ana at 7 p. m.

SAFETY GATES FOR CHILDREN

Street safety gates, similar to those used at railroad crossings, are being operated by school boy traffic patrol officers at busy crossings around an Evanston, Ill., school. If the gates prove successful, it is planned to use policemen, previously stationed at the corners, for other duty. One of the gates is shown in operation above.

PRESBYTERIANS HEAR TALK BY DR. McDOWELL

A large group of persons from all parts of Orange county heard an address by Dr. John McDowell, secretary of the Presbyterian National Board of Missions, at the Placentia Presbyterian church Wednesday night. The meeting was held by the Union of Presbyterian churches of the county. Dr. McDowell spoke on "The Mission of the Church in the Present Economic Depression."

Dr. McDowell spoke of the attitude of big business men toward Christian ideals in business. The greatest power in industry is not money or force, but love, he declared.

Christian ideals should be submitted for commercity and material ideals of profit and power, Dr. McDowell said. Emphasis should be placed on human values rather than on dollar values, he said.

Dr. McDowell and Dr. Graham Hunter, pastor of the Fullerton Presbyterian church, went to Santa Barbara yesterday where Dr. McDowell was scheduled to address Santa Barbara county Presbyterians last evening.

Dr. McDowell is regarded as one of the outstanding platform men of the Presbyterian church and has made an exhaustive study of Christian ideals in business. He is the author of "D. L. Moody—Discoverer of Man and Maker of Movements," "The Christian Spirit in Business," "The Fellowship of Th," "Christian Essentials" and a number of pamphlets on social and industrial problems.

An artistic collection of photographs representing the best work of the studio during the last 20 years and with many current works was today placed on display in a 10-day art exhibit at Cochems' studio, 304 North Sycamore street.

All phases of photography, portraits, character studies, landscapes, interiors and exteriors of the city's most pretentious homes and examples of the commercial photographer's art in reproducing clearly the romance of industry and machinery are represented.

It is a record of work of which Edward W. Cochems, proprietor, is justly proud and an exhibit worth taking the time to see, not only for the enjoyment of artistry but to gain better impression of what Santa Ana and Orange county produces.

If sufficient interest is manifested the exhibit will be continued more than 10 days now contemplated. An attendant is present to explain the works shown and to show the difference in methods of camera work.

CLUB ENTERTAINED

TUSTIN, June 10.—Gathering in the home of Mrs. Sarah Matthews Wednesday, members of the Cordon Club enjoyed a pleasant social afternoon. Baskets of pink gladioluses decked the rooms. Following several hours spent at fancywork, the hostess served salad, sandwiches, candy, cake and tea on individual trays to Mrs. F. W. Silver, Mrs. D. M. Forney, Mrs. E. E. Smith, Mrs. John Hubbard, Mrs. John F. Pieper, Mrs. Jennie Beckman and Mrs. J. Henry Parkway.

CHURCH SHOWS PROGRESS IN ANNUAL REPORT

Calvary church of Santa Ana had its first annual business meeting Wednesday night at Ebell club house. The Rev. Frank E. Lindgren, pastor, presided. A report on membership given by W. A. Hazen showed church services were begun September 20, 1931, and on October 25 the church was organized with 207 charter members. Since then 77 members have been added, 7 of these on confession of faith. Six members have been lost by removal to other churches or by death. The present membership is 278. The church was first organized as a branch of Calvary church in Placentia, but has now adopted its own constitution and is preparing to incorporate as an independent group associated with Calvary church in Placentia.

Those present were Miss Betty James, of Anaheim; Miss Marjorie Warner, of Whittier; Miss Lida Mitchell, and Miss Marguerite Reafsnyder, of Garden Grove; Stanley Cocks, of Berkeley; Glen Launer, of La Habra; Wilton Hilliard, of Huntington Beach, and John W. Mitchell, of Garden Grove.

J. W. MITCHELL, GARDEN GROVE GIRL TO WED

GARDEN GROVE, June 10.—Miss Marguerite Reafsnyder entertained recently with an informal evening of bridge and dancing in honor of Stanley Cocks, of Berkeley, who has been the house guest of John W. Mitchell.

The young men present were all members of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity and former classmates of the university at Berkeley.

Prizes in bridge were awarded first to Miss Lida Mitchell and Glenn Launer, while Miss Betty James and Stanley Cocks were consoled.

Although the announcement has not been made, friends noticed the lovely engagement ring being worn by Miss Reafsnyder and will be interested to know of her engagement to John W. Mitchell, son of Supervisor and Mrs. John C. Mitchell. Miss Reafsnyder is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reafsnyder and attended Santa Ana Junior college until recently.

Those present were Miss Betty James, of Anaheim; Miss Marjorie Warner, of Whittier; Miss Lida Mitchell, and Miss Marguerite Reafsnyder, of Garden Grove; Stanley Cocks, of Berkeley; Glen Launer, of La Habra; Wilton Hilliard, of Huntington Beach, and John W. Mitchell, of Garden Grove.

LOS ANGELES, June 10.—Eddie Martin, well known Santa Ana aviator and chairman of the aviation committee of the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce, was included in the biographies of famous flyers in the Blue Book of Aviation, it was announced today by the Hoagland company, Los Angeles, publishers, following shipment of first editions to newspapers and libraries throughout the country.

Martin, according to the book, established the Martin airport at Santa Ana in 1922 and his activity in the industry has won him recognition among more than 800 other outstanding aviators, including World war flyers, noted men and women pilots, aeronautical executives and engineers, whose biographies were completed after more than two years research in 17 nations.

Martin is also a director of the Professional Pilots' association, according to the 292-page volume.

Democratic Convention Opens At H. S., Tonight

STATE GROUP LEADERS ARE NAMED TODAY

The list of those who will take part in the big Democratic mock national convention to be held at the high school auditorium tonight as a benefit for the Citizens' Relief committee's work among the unemployed, was announced today by the committee in charge. Judge J. G. Mitchell, chairman of the county Democratic central committee will call the convention to order. Horace Head, prominent local attorney and former district attorney of Orange county, is slated as temporary chairman and key-note speaker. Attorney Head has been a well known of local Democracy for 20 years or more. He is an able speaker and his address is expected to be a forecast of the key-note address at the big national convention in Chicago.

It is expected that B. Z. McKinney, Santa Ana attorney, and candidate for congressman on the Democratic ticket will capture the election as permanent chairman. Those who know would not commit themselves today as to whether there were other candidates for these two offices but the lively tilt in the national party over the chairmanship at Chicago may forecast a contest here.

The big issue and point of interest of the convention is, of course, the selection of a candidate for president and it is expected there will be much fervid oratory setting forth the merits of various favorite sons, though nomination speeches are being limited to five minutes each. In all probability Garner, Roosevelt, and Smith will be placed before the convention. The first ballot may also bring forth nominations for McAdoo, J. Hamilton Lewis, Joe Robinson, "Alfalfa" Bill Murray, Jim Reed, Senator Walsh, William Ritchie, Pat Harrison and Huey Long.

May Continue Saturday

Many are freely predicting that there is little chance the local convention can round out its program Friday evening, political forecasters declaring it will be necessary to adjourn to Saturday night, particularly if there is much contest over the various planks in the platform. It is reported that high school auditorium has been reserved against such a contingency.

The list of those who will act as chairmen of the state delegations contains many names prominent in local professional, business and political circles. A few non-Democrats are taking part in the big program in order to help on the good cause for which it is a benefit—the work of the Citizens' Relief committee among the unemployed and needy.

Delegation chairmen and the states they will represent are as follows: Alabama, Clarence Smith; Arkansas, Bruce Switzer; Arizona, Harry Westover; California, Dave Wetlin; Colorado, J. F. Jacoby; Connecticut, J. K. Colwell; Delaware, Franklin Grouard; Florida, Wiley Harris; Georgia, W. H. Wright; Idaho, Maurice Enderle; Illinois, M. B. Wellings.

ton, Ralph Smedley; Indiana, Judge McGhee, Some Native Sons Iowa, Ed Cowles; Kansas, Mrs. Clara McCord; Kentucky, B. Z. McKinney; Louisiana, Jules Marke; Maine, Mrs. Martha Schriff; Maryland, Otto Jacob; Massachusetts, Ray Atkinson; Michigan, Wilbur Getty; Minnesota, J. W. Alexander; Mississippi, Ogden Marke; Missouri, A. A. Brock; Montana, J. L. Davis; Nebraska, H. Brown; Nevada, Judge J. H. Mitchell; New Hampshire, J. B. Castile; New Jersey, William Salisbury.

New York, Carl Helm; New Mexico, P. Lonan; North Carolina, C. B. McKinney; North Dakota, Ed Adelman; Ohio, Ben Tarver; Oklahoma, John Knox; Oregon, Marshal Secret; Pennsylvania, Dr. Besale Martell; Rhode Island, Chester Dale; South Carolina, Charles Aubrey; South Dakota, Charles Chamberlain; Tennessee, C. M. Burrow; Texas, Robert Ramsey; Utah, Miss Gertrude Thompson; Vermont, Frank Harwood; Virginia, Mrs. Nora Allen; Washington, Robert Mize; West Virginia, Mayor Paul Witmer; Wisconsin, George Edgar; Wyoming, Mrs. D. W. Wetlin; Hawaii, Paul J. Dale; Alaska, William Tway; Philippines, Judge Patten; District of Columbia, Mrs. Margaret C. Walsh.

Sponsors of the convention are pointing out that this is the first time a similar entertainment has ever been held in Orange county and that as it will be an accurate picture of a national political convention it will be educational as well as entertaining.

COSTA MESA

COSTA MESA June 10.—Scoutmaster Lloyd Willcutt, Assistant Scoutmaster Douglas Ward, and Scout Committee Frank Viele, of Costa Mesa, and Albert Spencer of Newport Beach, spent two days at Camp Rokill with a group of Scout officials from all over Orange county.

Billy Brown, formerly of Rochester street, Costa Mesa, now of the U. S. S. Maryland, stationed at San Pedro, spent the week end with his mother, Mrs. Laura Brown.

Mrs. A. F. Hasse and daughter, Martha, arrived home Monday evening. Mrs. Hasse was away 10 days. Miss Martha Hasse has just graduated from the Methodist School of Religious Training at San Francisco.

Giris of the eighth grade are giving a luncheon in the cooking room Friday noon, with the departmental teachers as guests.

Mr. and Mrs. A. McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Bland and Mrs. N. Viele were Los Angeles visitors Sunday.

Mrs. C. P. Smith and son Lester and Fried Viele returned Sunday evening from a four-day visit at Jules Market, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rheme and Harold Wright spent a few days at Holcomb Valley, near Big Bear.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Kesele, of Pomona, are spending a few days at the Will Kesele home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Guthrie moved to Monrovia Tuesday. Mrs. Guthrie has been seriously ill but is much improved now.

THAT'S NO VACATION

WORCESTER, Mass., June 10.—In suing his wife for divorce, Franz H. C. Cappus, $3, came in for a rigid cross-examination. He admitted having taken his 26-year-old private secretary, a pretty girl, on vacation trips to New York, Cuba and elsewhere. When asked why he hadn't taken his wife along, he replied: "That, sir, would not have been a vacation."

LEGIONNAIRES
ON ECONOMICS

Featured by an address made by John Leitch, former industrial specialist, on the dangers of Communism and the economic aspects of the present situation, and an outstanding entertainment program, the regular monthly meeting of Santa Ana post No. 131, American Legion, was held last night in the Legion hall.

Jules Market, chairman of the Americanization committee, introduced Leitch as the speaker of the evening. In a report Market made previous to the introduction he warned against Communistic literature that has been distributed here and declared that Communism must be combated.

Leitch told of his experiences in fighting Bolshevism in industries during the war. Legion members have something to work for, a real cause, the speaker declared. "You men," he said, "have risked your lives for a cause, and you may have to do it again. We're close to Communism, not only this community but all over the nation. We have to fight this time, not with guns, but 24 hours a day. During the last year 18,000,000 acres of land have been taken away from their owners because they couldn't pay their taxes, interest and mortgages. These owners have no homes and many of them have no work. They are disappointed men who have lost faith in this land of the free, the cradle of liberty.

Action Needed

"We've got to stop that stuff. We must do something definite. In the Constitution of the United States we have the cure and have not used it. Representatives of the people represent the people or they are not representatives. If they do not represent the people, we still have the power of recall. We have many good representatives but many who are not. If they were all good representatives we would not be in this present condition. I say wake up to the recall, and that the representatives must represent the people all the time.

"Already we are partly Communistic and we didn't vote on it. Communism is a super state with all people working for it. What would you call it when the government is taking over great numbers of farms and property? It is your fault and mine, but what are we going to do about it? I have a definite program. They say I'm radical. We lack nothing here but one thing—money. Money to make possible the interchange of goods. We have thrown down God Almighty to worship the dollar. The Constitution says the government should control the true value

GROWING ARMY CONVERGES ON WASHINGTON

Streams of bonus-minded war veterans pouring into Washington by train, and even on foot, created a situation which was as strange as it was full of dangerous possibilities. Veterans in Cleveland (upper left) swarmed aboard locomotives, stopped them with cross-ties on the track, demanding free rides to Washington. A contingent of several hundred left New York (lower left) hiking after a short train and ferry ride. "On to Washington" was the cry, voiced by leaders such as C. B. Cowan, Cleveland Communist (lower center) who is shown seeking "recruits" for the B. E. F. (Bonus Expeditionary Force.) As new arrivals dropped from box-cars (upper right), authorities made efforts to set up temporary shelters in Washington (lower right so far as their limited funds would go). The national Capitol (center right) was the goal of all, and every new arrival added tens to a strained situation.

"We want to urge all Boy Scout supporters to give us their support this year and in years to come. With all the other propaganda that is going on in our community we need your help to help us to teach your boys to be true Americans," said Fultz.

Following the program a brief business meeting was held, with Commander Rodney Bacon presiding.

Issuing an appeal to the public to support and attend the seventh annual Orange County Boy Scout Jamboree at the Santa Ana Bowl at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow night, Governor Fultz, chairman of the Jamboree committee of the 40 and 8 society, its sponsor, today announced that Assemblyman Ted Craig of Brea will be master of ceremonies. There also will be a speaker on Americanization who will deliver a short address.

The Orange County Kill Willies, composed of members of the Orange County Builders' Exchange, presented a program of music and entertainment after the dinner.

A group of youthful dancers and singers were featured in the entertainment program. Lorle Buell presented a tap dance, "Jack Blue." Junior Kavanagh gave a tap solo and sang a song. Jean McKamy danced Spanish tango. Louis Goble did a tap dance, "Off Rhythm." The entire group presented a military dance at the conclusion of their program.

Chairman Fultz especially urged parents to attend and see in what kind of hands and what leadership

Proceeds from the Jamboree will be used to send boys to Camp Rokill, the Boy Scout camp this summer. Twelve hundred Scouts from all over the county are expected to compete in various contests for prizes at the Jamboree.

Homophenous Club Has Delightful Affair In Tustin

Members of the Lip Reading class, known among its members as the Homophenous club, enjoyed a rare treat this week when they were invited to the home of Mrs. Sherman Stevens, Main street, Tustin. This was the farewell party for the season, as the group will not meet again until September.

Thirty-two members were present to share the hospitality of Mrs. Stevens and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Snow, who assisted in entertaining. Guests spent much time viewing the lovely home and its wealth of paintings, representing art centers from all over the world. Several of the rooms of the home are filled with these masterpieces.

Following this pleasant interval, guessing games were played, with Miss Smith and Mrs. Nash winning prizes. A pleasant interval came when Mrs. Stevens showed colored motion pictures of her trips through Europe, much to the delight of all present.

The guests then were invited to inspect the grounds, the hundreds of birds, the rock garden, trees and ferns about the beautiful estate. While the group was thus occupied, tables were made ready for refreshments, served buffet style in the dining room. Mrs. John Wehrly and Mrs. Snow assisted the hostesses at this time. Cake, ice cream and coffee were served.

Mrs. John Osborn, president of the club, presented the class teacher, Miss Ruth Bartlett, with a brown traveling case on behalf of the class. She responded with an appreciative talk.

Those present were Miss Ruth Bartlett, Mrs. Groover, Mrs. John Wehrly, Mrs. Homer Cole, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Druse, Miss Pauline Parsons, Miss Collins, Mrs. Jo Lowell, Mrs. Lamb, Mrs. Austin, Mrs. Nash, Mrs. J. N. Osborn, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Huffine, Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. Clayton, Mrs. Henry Terry, Mrs. Shaffert, Mrs. Wilson, Miss Lee Huffine, Mrs. Cowan, Miss McCaffery, Mrs. Golden, Norwood Weston, Miss Smith, Mrs. Bruns, Mrs. McCrighton, Mrs. Stevens and Mrs. Snow. Members of the class represent various parts of the country.

Business Girls Have Enjoyable Steak Bake

Twenty-five members of the Y.W.C.A. took part in the club steak bake held Tuesday evening at Hewes park. The menu was served at 6:30 o'clock.

During the evening, plans were made for next week's meeting, to be held Tuesday evening, June 14 at Anaheim park. Those planning to attend are to make reservations with Miss Nancy Elder. Also, plans were made for going horseback riding sometime in the near future.

Wedding Anniversary Celebrated With Dinner Party

Popular Young Couple Wed in Costa Mesa Community Church

Hospitality of Beach Home Enjoyed by Ebell Group

Bridge Evening Comes As Pleasant Sequel To Park Outing

Moav Club Members Elect Officers In Orange

Those close friends of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Nowotny who were invited to dine with them in their home on Monday night, were unaware until dinner was underway that the hospitality was in celebration of an important anniversary in the Nowotny family circle, the silver wedding day of the hosts, who were wedded 25 years ago in New Braunfels, Texas.

The home at 1005 West Sixth street, was made a delightful spot by the many flowers used decoratively. One great basket of blooms had been sent by the office staff of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company, of which Mr. Nowotny is manager. Others were grown in the gardens of Mrs. George Wells, and Mrs. Wells herself arranged them in artistic clusters of mixed summer blooms.

The same variety was seen in the flowers centering each of the small tables where dinner was served after guests had found their places. A delectable chicken dinner was served with its accompanying vegetable, salad and dessert courses.

With the tables cleared of dinner details, each was spread with card table cover for the session of bridge which occupied the remainder of the evening. Mrs. W. D. Ranney and A. N. Zerman, scoring high in the game, were suitably rewarded while consolation prizes went to Mrs. Fred Newcomb Jr. and Mr. Ranney.

Memories of the wedding day of the hosts were uppermost through the remainder of the evening, and one of the striking features was their renewal of wedding vows. For this ceremony, Mr. Nowotny's nephew, Judge Frank Tausch of Anaheim, presided, reading a semi-humorous service which towards its end, became most impressive to the interested friends. As Mr. and Mrs. Nowotny repeated their wedding vows, they were showered with rose petals by Mrs. Wells, a silver wedding maid of honor.

Friends asked to share this happy occasion with the hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Newcomb Jr., Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Flagg, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Ranney, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Zerman, Mr. and Mrs. George Wells, Judge and Mrs. Frank Tausch of Anaheim; Mr. and Mrs. Don Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Theo Wimbarger, Mr. and Mrs. James Tarpely and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Langley.

Mr. and Mrs. Crawford left amidst the good wishes of their friends, for a honeymoon trip to the Yosemite, the bride traveling in a costume of Olympic blue with white dress accessories. Upon their return they will make their home in this city, where both have a world of friends gained during their years at Santa Ana high school.

Among the guests present at the wedding were Mrs. Eva Hadley, mother of the bride, and John, Woodrow and Junior Hadley; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Saunders and Jeanette Nall, who arrived from her home in San Francisco for a two-weeks' visit in the home of her brother, Theo F. Nall, 926 West Myrtle street.

Mrs. Jess O. Goodman, who recently returned from an extended tour of the Orient, had rented her home at 2300 Benton Way and will spend the next year in Los Angeles looking after property interests there, after July during which she will be at the Jonathon street.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur T. Evans of Martinez, Calif., left yesterday morning for Hot Springs, Ark., having enjoyed a visit with Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Kincaid, 1225 South Broadway. Mrs. Evans is a niece of Mrs. Kincaid.

Jack Kahler, 1512 Dresser street, is at the Good Samaritan hospital recuperating from a major operation which he underwent last Friday. He is reported as getting along nicely, and is expected to return home the last of this month.

S. H. Lee of this city has just returned from a five-day fishing trip which took him to various interesting points along the coast. Mr. Lee was accompanied by Warren Dubois Jordan, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Jordan of 1702 West Fourth street, and by Henry and Leonard Maunder, sons of Mr. and Mrs. George Maunder of Newport Beach. Upon returning the entire party was entertained in the Maunder home, where the fishermen were congratulated on the success of their expedition, and allowed opportunity to describe it in detail.

Mrs. P. T. Isherwood, who has been confined to her home at 719 East Walnut street, for the past two weeks, with illness incurred by a slight stroke, is said to be much improved.

Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Thompson, who have just concluded a two-months' stay in Santa Ana, left Monday for their home in Milwaukee, Wis. Dr. Thompson has completed the pulpit of the United Presbyterian church during his visit in this city. The Thompsons' Santa Ana sojourn afforded them a happy opportunity to renew contacts with Mrs. Thompson's cousins, Mrs. T. L. Warren of 814 North Parton street, and Miss Jane White of 611 West Sixth street, with whom they have enjoyed frequent visits in the past two months.

Mrs. C. E. Saulsberry of 1901 Bush street sailed this week on the S. S. Pennsylvania for New York to join her husband for the summer. Dr. Saulsberry, who preceded his wife east, has been occupied this past winter with property interests in New Jersey, where he and Mrs. Saulsberry resided before coming to California a few years ago. Both are expected to return by the end of the summer. Their daughter, Miss Mary Saulsberry, is remaining in Santa Ana.

Preceding the rites was a short musical program to which James H. Hughes of this city, contributed the solo numbers, "All For You" and "Until." Mrs. Valencia Sanchez of Richfield was at the organ to play Lohengrin's Wedding March for the entrance of the bride party.

Miss Hadley, strikingly blonde, was altogether lovely in her wedding gown of heavy satin gleaming beneath the folds of her long tulle veil. She wore as an ornament the pearls which were Mr. Crawford's gift, and carried a formal bridal bouquet with a shower of lilies of the valley. She was given in marriage by her brother, John Hadley.

As the bride moved to the altar where Mr. Crawford and his attendants awaited her with the officiating minister, the Rev. A. F. Hasse, it was over a pathway of flowers, scattered by little Miss Darlene White of this city. The little maid was demure and dainty in her bouffant frock of pale blue organza.

With the tables cleared of dinner details, each was spread with card table cover for the session of bridge which occupied the remainder of the evening. Mrs. W. D. Ranney and A. N. Zerman, scoring high in the game, were suitably rewarded while consolation prizes went to Mrs. Fred Newcomb Jr. and Mr. Ranney.

Jack Kahler, 1512 Dresser street, is at the Good Samaritan hospital recuperating from a major operation which he underwent last Friday. He is reported as getting along nicely, and is expected to return home the last of this month.

S. H. Lee of this city has just returned from a five-day fishing trip which took him to various interesting points along the coast. Mr. Lee was accompanied by Warren Dubois Jordan, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Jordan of 1702 West Fourth street, and by Henry and Leonard Maunder, sons of Mr. and Mrs. George Maunder of Newport Beach. Upon returning the entire party was entertained in the Maunder home, where the fishermen were congratulated on the success of their expedition, and allowed opportunity to describe it in detail.

Mrs. P. T. Isherwood, who has been confined to her home at 719 East Walnut street, for the past two weeks, with illness incurred by a slight stroke, is said to be much improved.

Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Thompson, who have just concluded a two-months' stay in Santa Ana, left Monday for their home in Milwaukee, Wis. Dr. Thompson has completed the pulpit of the United Presbyterian church during his visit in this city. The Thompsons' Santa Ana sojourn afforded them a happy opportunity to renew contacts with Mrs. Thompson's cousins, Mrs. T. L. Warren of 814 North Parton street, and Miss Jane White of 611 West Sixth street, with whom they have enjoyed frequent visits in the past two months.

Mrs. C. E. Saulsberry of 1901 Bush street sailed this week on the S. S. Pennsylvania for New York to join her husband for the summer. Dr. Saulsberry, who preceded his wife east, has been occupied this past winter with property interests in New Jersey, where he and Mrs. Saulsberry resided before coming to California a few years ago. Both are expected to return by the end of the summer. Their daughter, Miss Mary Saulsberry, is remaining in Santa Ana.

One of the loveliest weddings of the early summer was solemnized Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in a fragrant bower of flowers and ferns erected in the "Church Beautiful," (Costa Mesa Community church) when Miss Emma Hadley, daughter of Mrs. Eva Hadley, Newport Beach, became the bride of William Reeves Crawford, son of Mrs. J. M. Russell, also of Newport Beach.

Preceding the rites was a short musical program to which James H. Hughes of this city, contributed the solo numbers, "All For You" and "Until."

Miss Hadley, strikingly blonde, was altogether lovely in her wedding gown of heavy satin gleaming beneath the folds of her long tulle veil. She wore as an ornament the pearls which were Mr. Crawford's gift, and carried a formal bridal bouquet with a shower of lilies of the valley. She was given in marriage by her brother, John Hadley.

With the tables cleared of dinner details, each was spread with card table cover for the session of bridge which occupied the remainder of the evening. Mrs. W. D. Ranney and A. N. Zerman, scoring high in the game, were suitably rewarded while consolation prizes went to Mrs. Fred Newcomb Jr. and Mr. Ranney.

Memories of the wedding day of the hosts were uppermost through the remainder of the evening, and one of the striking features was their renewal of wedding vows. For this ceremony, Mr. Nowotny's nephew, Judge Frank Tausch of Anaheim, presided, reading a semi-humorous service which towards its end, became most impressive to the interested friends. As Mr. and Mrs. Nowotny repeated their wedding vows, they were showered with rose petals by Mrs. Wells, a silver wedding maid of honor.

Friends asked to share this happy occasion with the hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Newcomb Jr., Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Flagg, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Ranney, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Zerman, Mr. and Mrs. George Wells, Judge and Mrs. Frank Tausch of Anaheim; Mr. and Mrs. Don Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Theo Wimbarger, Mr. and Mrs. James Tarpely and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Langley.

Mr. and Mrs. Crawford left amidst the good wishes of their friends, for a honeymoon trip to the Yosemite, the bride traveling in a costume of Olympic blue with white dress accessories. Upon their return they will make their home in this city, where both have a world of friends gained during their years at Santa Ana high school.

Among the guests present at the wedding were Mrs. Eva Hadley, mother of the bride, and John, Woodrow and Junior Hadley; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Saunders and Jeanette Nall, who arrived from her home in San Francisco for a two-weeks' visit in the home of her brother, Theo F. Nall, 926 West Myrtle street.

Mrs. Jess O. Goodman, who recently returned from an extended tour of the Orient, had rented her home at 2300 Benton Way and will spend the next year in Los Angeles looking after property interests there, after July during which she will be at the Jonathon street.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur T. Evans of Martinez, Calif., left yesterday morning for Hot Springs, Ark., having enjoyed a visit with Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Kincaid, 1225 South Broadway. Mrs. Evans is a niece of Mrs. Kincaid.

Preceding the rites, concluded the pleasant affair, in which shared Miss Emma H. A. Smith, "victim" of the surprise; P. N. Chapin, H. A. Springer, G. W. Bartlett, Margaret Culver, A. A. Wyatt, E. Woods, Minnie Rowe, M. R. Kellogg, Laura Sanborn, William Lawrence, R. C. Butler, C. H. Powers, J. A. Gardner, E. M. Mills presiding at the tea table.

Refreshments, also provided by the visitors, were served at 8 o'clock, and members of the party passed an enjoyable evening at bridge, at which Mrs. Laura Sanborn and Mrs. J. A. Gardner tallied high and low, respectively.

get rid of several quarts per week since.

This amount will serve 12 generously. I do not stir it after placing it in the refrigerator.

TODAY'S RECIPE

Light Dumplings
1 scant cup bread flour
2 rounded teaspoons baking powder
1 scant teaspoon salt
Ice water to mix to stiff batter
No egg, no butter, no nothin', just flour, water, baking powder and faith go into the making of these dumplings.

Sift the ingredients twice and mix to a stiff batter with ICE WATER.

Have ready a pot of boiling stew or stock, drop the dumpling batter in by small spoonfuls. Put on the lid, tightly—and do not peek for half an hour. Be sure, though, that you have plenty of liquid for dumplings absorb a lot of liquid.

These same dumplings can double as a dessert if you mix fruit with the batter, a steamer and steam over hot water. An easier way is to drop them into a slightly sweetened fruit juice and cook as you would meat dumplings.

One of the finest cooks I know, cooks her dumplings in an open kettle. She says that hers never fail and she doesn't have to worry about the lid popping off or the kettle boiling over. It's worth trying at any rate.

Right now young mutton is the best I have ever seen it. Buy a piece of loin and have it cut into thick chops, two inches to a chop. Brown them in a hot skillet, cover and finish in the oven and they are almost as nice as the costly broiled English lamb chop.

THE VERSATILE SANDWICH comes to you with all its time-saving ideas and clever recipes for daily or party serving. You may have the leaflet free of charge this week by sending me a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

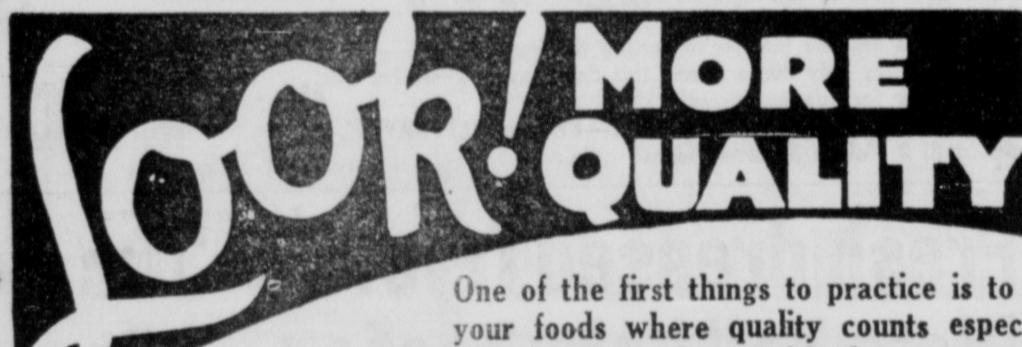

Saturday, Marengo Chicken will be the recipe.

Tea Shoppe, Collier Home Settings for Bridge Luncheon

A pastel color combination which guests found especially charming was employed by Mrs. E. B. Collier when she entertained her fellow members in Paso Tiempo club at the Doris Kathryn Tea Shoppe and in her own home at 117 East Washington avenue, Tuesday.

Gathering at the former location for luncheon, club members were ushered to tables gay with flowers of pale yellow, pink and blue, the tints of which were reflected in the attractive place-cards which indicated the several covers.

Adjourning later to their hostess' residence, guests were pleasantly occupied with contract during the ensuing afternoon hours, a totalling of tallies at play's conclusion bringing the day's awards to Mrs. Ashby Turner and Mrs. Charles Borchard.

Enjoying this week's assembly were Madames A. F. Legaye, Nannie E. Lester, F. F. Mead, Charles Borchard, Richard Connor, Ashby Turner, and L. B. Banks, in addition to the hostess, Mrs. E. B. Collier.

Garden Party Given By Social Order Of Beaumont

A delightful afternoon in the gardens of the home of Mrs. S. A. Jones, 2327 Benton way, was shared Tuesday by members of the Social Order of the Beaumont and their friends, who took part in a benefit party given for the organization.

Mrs. A. R. Miller was general chairman of the afternoon. In carrying out her plans she had the assistance of various committees whose chairmen were Mrs. B. Utley, Mrs. B. E. Dawson, Mrs. W. H. Thomas and Mrs. J. W. McCormac.

Prizes for scoring first and second high in the card games of the afternoon were won by Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Verne Whitson. Mrs. John Knox was consoled, and a special prize was awarded to Mrs. Rena Borchard.

Appetizing refreshments were served at the conclusion of the affair. About 45 members and friends were in attendance.

Student Recital

Conservatory Program

Lauded by a discriminating audience, as the finest recital ever presented by the Santa Ana Conservatory of Music, Tuesday night's program featuring students of the conservatory and given in the Ebell auditorium, attracted a crowd that taxed the capacity of the auditorium.

Since all phases of music and dramatic arts are taught in the conservatory, it was to be expected that a diversified program would be given, but added to the variety was the faultless work of individual artists. The program opened with that dainty fantasy, "Legend of the Willow Plate," directed by Gladys Simpson Shaffer, and given by a group of her young expression pupils.

Costumed and presented in true Oriental manner, the playlet was well interpreted by Betty Jo Wilhite, Bluma Hurwitz, Liebby Peale, Jane King, Charlotte Quiggle, Betty Jane Timmons, Howard Brown, Burr Shaffer, Jr., Roberta Shaffer and Madalynne Reuter.

Miss Anna Mae Archer's rendition of the cello number, "First movement of Concerto No. 4" by Goltermann, was very fine, as was the clarinet solo, "Shadow Song" from "Dinorah," played by Donald Smiley. In perfect harmony and rhythm were Marie Steuart and Doris Flippin, playing the Rachmaninoff "Prelude Militaire" as a two-piano number. Nancy Lou Hargrave's piano number, "Fireflies" by Grant Schaefer, was well played, and was followed by vocal solos by Lynwood Young.

This talented young singer told the legend of the "Lost Arrow" from Alan Dunn's "Legends of the Yosemite" before singing the number, which he followed by the dramatic "Song of the Vagabond" by Barnes.

Thomas Flippin's rendering of the Prologue from "Pagliacci" was warmly applauded as was the piano solo, "Sprites of the Glen" (Dennie) played by Evelyn Furtach. Miss Althea Lembeck sang "Russian Nightingale" (Alabieff) charmingly, followed by the beautiful piano number, "Bouree" by Bach, played by Elizabeth Lenhardt, and the vocal trio, Lorraine Hanson, Blanche Owens and Edna Bichan in "By the Bend of the River" (Edwards-Hemstreet) and "Men Lindy Lou" by Lily Strickland.

St. Saens' "The Swan" as played by Caroline Pickering, showed a mastery of the cello by the young artist, while equally interesting were the piano solos, "Clair de la Lune" (Debussy) and "Waltz in A Flat" (Brahms) played by Mutta Wada, a young Japanese girl with a true musician's soul. George Stinson was received with enthusiasm in his two solos, "Trees" by Raebach, and the operatic number, "Celeste Aida" by Verdi.

Miss Mary Cianfoni's dramatic gifts and mastery of expression were apparent in her reading of "White Shadow" by John V. A. Weaver. She was followed by that talented young violin artist, Georgia Belle Walton, in two beautifully played Kreisler numbers, "La Tambour Chinois" and "Midnight Bells," and the program closed on the same sustained note of high achievement, with "Fragments from Stephen Foster" (arranged by Gault) by a brass quintet, Robert Kelly, Owen Owens, Harold Lutes, D. C. Cianfoni and Thomas Flippin.

ACES OF RADIO ON STAGE BILL AT BROADWAY

The road of radio fans as well as theatergoers leads to the Fox Broadway tonight when the "Happy Chappies," celebrated artists of the air, head a Radio Fun Show of five units here.

This stage attraction shares the spot with "Radio Patrol," an exciting picture of crime and police featuring Lila Lee, Robert Armstrong and Russell Hopton.

Freddie and Nat, the "Happy Chappies," are two of the most popular radio entertainers in the country, with the famed "Barnacle Bill" song their outstanding offering. In addition to their singing, the "Chappies" are song-writers, record-makers and comedians of exceptional ability.

Accompanying the "Chappies" to Santa Ana are Charlie Lung, "the man of 100 voices" of KFWB; the Three Loose Screws, singers, pianists and dancers of KNX; Norma Monte, KECA's songbird, and Mickey Conti, "the boy wizard and his accordion" of KMTR.

Opportunely enough, the Broadway's screen play, "The Radio Patrol," presents for the first time the story of these intrepid night-riders who hunt down criminals while the world sleeps, or listen to their signals low down on the dial. It is a story of the most recent development of police systems, employing the radio to corner the underworld menaces who lurk in the night of a big city.

500 Persons Attend Newport Graduation Exercises

42 PUPILS OF BEACH SCHOOL GET DIPLOMAS

NEXT BEACH, June 10.—More than 500 people witnessed the graduation exercises in the grammar school auditorium here last night. Twenty-two girls and 21 boys of Newport Beach, Balboa and Corona Del Mar finished the common school work and will pass into high school next fall.

Ray Adkinson, county superintendent of schools, gave the address of the evening, speaking on the subject, "Whither the Thinker." The school orchestra played several pieces. The orchestra was composed of 20 pieces and was directed by V. S. Harrison. Mrs. Rita Patton, president of the school board of trustees, presided during the program. Mrs. Vera Sparks, president of the Parent-Teacher association, presented the diplomas. The Rev. Russell Stroup gave the invocation and Miss Peggy Critten den was salutatorian.

In his talk, Adkinson went back especially with the older folk to the time when the three R's were the things that the school had to offer the child, but at this particular time, he stated, there is another letter needed to round out the course, stating that the thing needing to be stressed is character. He stated that the closest cooperation of the parents with the school is necessary to accomplish the most good. The environment, or the community, is also another important factor to consider in the bringing up of a child in the way he should go. Adkinson, speaking to the class particularly, spoke of commencement, not as a commencement, but as a stopping point or an inspiration point and closed his address urging the graduates to thank their parents, their teachers, and their communities, and hoping that they might go on to new inspiration points.

At the entrance each person was presented with a copy of the school paper, published by the eighth grade pupils of the school. Henry Mauder was editor-in-chief and Prof. H. O. Ensign, principal of the school, was manager.

The closing number on the program was the class song, "Waltz of the Flowers," by P. Tschalnowski. Those graduating were Eileen Berry, Josephine Clouse, Peggy Critten den, Agnes Dixon, Laura Duarte, Emma Gore, Jeanne Griffin, Ruth Hawthorne, Audrey Hoike, Mary F. Holt, Elizabeth Hemphill, Esther Nielsen, Kathryn Sexton, Rose Mary Simot, Dorothy Stratford, Madeline Strain, Muriel Strunk, Edna Walker, Dorothy Weiner, Etta Jean Wilson, Mabel Young, Leone Roth, Arthur Fredrick, Gilman Brookings, Frank Campos, Archie Estus, George Foster, John J. Hudleston, Albert F. Irwin, Glenn Johnston, Harvey Hemphill, Charles Langmade, Keith Lee, Henry Mauder, Robert Powers, Norman Stoddart, Charlie Strunk, Anton Suttor, Donald Truax, Edward Van Pelt and Raymond Wallace.

Hold Parties For School Students

OCEANVIEW, June 10.—The eighth grade class members went aboard the U. S. S. Nevada in Los Angeles harbor this week. Joseph Gehauer and Miss Susan Russell of the faculty accompanying on the school bus while a number of parents and friends drove over in private cars.

Mrs. Mattie Payne gave a class party at the school Wednesday for her fourth grade class. Refreshments of strawberries and ice cream were served.

The second grades were served refreshments by their teacher, Mrs. Reba Tracy. Americanization pupils of Miss Helen Shonenberg were given a party in their home.

Four teachers, Miss Susan Russell, Miss Merle Rosenbaum and Miss Helen Shonenberg of the local school faculty, and Miss Winifred Woodard, a former teacher here and now of El Centro, were entertained by evening guests of Miss Zexie Nichols.

At the entrance each person was

ORANGETHORPE GRADE PUPILS HOLD PROGRAM

ORANGETHORPE, June 10.—Orangethorpe grammar school auditorium was filled to capacity for the graduation exercises Thursday evening. Georgia Green played "A Perfect Day" on the violin, accompanied by Ramona Mulligan.

F. E. Bissell, member of the board of trustees, offered the invocation. This was followed by the presentation of diplomas by F. B. Callan, president of the board of trustees. Richard Grainger gave the class will and Margaret Grinde and Adeline McDonald cleverly used the crystal ball to tell the class prognosis. The class song, "Here's Success to You," was accompanied by Miss Cynthia Kerven.

Two plays entitled "You Tell 'er" and "Elmer" featured the members of the graduating class.

The graduates receiving diplomas were Edward Canada, Dorothy Trezise, Jim Talcott, Evelyn Bowman, Melvin Miller, Margaret Peterson, Eric Gutzman, Pauline Filbrun, Carl Murphy, Jimmie Connor, Margaret Grinde, Tommie Nishimoto, Adeline McDonald, Otis Winter, Betsy Bissell, Richard Grainger, Lenore Callan, Richard Carmichael, Marion Miller and Thomas Covey.

The school orchestra under the direction of Champion Nixon played several numbers and Miss Betty Fackener rendered piano between the acts of the plays.

CHERRY PRODUCTION

Cherry production in Orange county last year was six tons, from a total of 305 trees of bearing age, a state report disclosed.

GRADUATION EXERCISES FOR STUDENTS OF HARBOR HIGH SCHOOL HELD SUNDAY NIGHT

NEWPORT HEIGHTS, June 10.—All residents of the Newport harbor district are invited to be present at the graduation services Sunday evening and the graduation exercises next Wednesday evening. Both of these will be held in the High school auditorium and will begin promptly at 8 o'clock. Corses and boutonnieres for the graduates will be presented by Fred Opp, local florist. The graduates request that no other flowers be given.

Following is the program for Sunday night: Processional, "Coronation March," from "The False Prophet," orchestra; hymn, "Come Thou Almighty King," invocation, the Rev. A. F. Hasse; "Invocation to Life," Spross, and "The Green Cathedral," Hahn, Girls' Glee club; Scripture reading, the Rev. Russell Stroup; address, W. Ballentine Henley, of University of Southern California; "The Song of Man," Kounts, Boys' Glee club; hymn, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," and benediction, the Rev. William Power.

The program for the graduation exercises, June 15, follows:

Processional: "Triumphal March" from "Aida," Verdi; orchestra; invocation, the Rev. Russell Stroup; "The Newer Education," Virginia Rugg; "Education for Citizenship," Wilford MacDonald; and "Rain," Curran, and "Bridal Song" from "The Rose Malden," Cowen, Girls' Glee club; "Education for Worthy Home Membership," Mildred Logsdon; "Education for Worthy Use of Leisure Time," Mary Jane Sturgeon; "Education for Character Development," Dorothy Ensign; and "Morning," Speaks, Helen Jane Fuller; "Assuming the Responsibilities of Life," Simona Pooley; "Farewell," Kamei Okamoto; "Invictus," Huhn, and "Keep in the Middle of the Road," Bartholomew, Boys' Glee club; presentation of class, Principal Sidney H. Davidson; acceptance of class, Dr. F. C. Ferry, president board of trustees; presentation of diplomas, LeRoy P. Anderson, and benediction, the Rev. A. F. Hasse.

The tables were tastefully decorated in white and gold and these colors were carried out in the menu. A three-course dinner was served at 7 o'clock. The eldest son, A. C. Murdy, acted as toastmaster for the evening. A history of the family, written by the father, was read. Solos were sung and Mrs. D. D. Campbell, Mrs. Ethyl Kaufman, Mrs. R. E. Bean and J. A. Murdy Jr., Mrs. O. C. Hare accompanying at the piano. At the close of the evening the entire family gathered around and all joined in singing old songs and hymns, closing with singing "God Be With You Till We Meet Again."

The anniversary party and the invited guests included the following: The honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Murdy and their 10 children, Mrs. Alma Reener, Colton; Mrs. Edith Harris, Murdock; Mrs. Blanche Platt, Safford, Ariz.; Mrs. Flossie McGirk, Colusa; Mrs. Hettye Dowdle, Klondyke, Ariz.; Mrs. Eva Beem, Wintersburg; Miss Ella Murdy, Smeltzer; C. Others attending the family party were Mrs. Murdy's sister, Mrs. Mary Wendling, who is a visitor here from South Dakota; her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Houllahan, and children, of San Gabriel, and Miss Agnes Wendling, of Los Angeles; Mrs. Ethyl Kaufman, of Gardena, a niece of Mr. Murdy, and her two children, and his sister, Mrs. Alice Biggert and Miss Alberta Williamson, of Los Angeles.

In his talk on "How is the Road Ahead," the Rev. Mr. Tinsley likened the future for the graduates unto a highway, whence advice from those who are further on the way will vary as to their outlooks on life. He said viewpoints depend on the attitude of mind of the persons who are traveling the road of life, and advised the students to assume a thorough attitude toward work which enables one to get from life exactly what he puts into it.

"The Master linked the common toll to the highest culture," he said, advising the students to look upon no task as too small for attacking.

"Another essential in living is to choose good companions. The road of life is determined by our companionships," he said.

The program included the invocation and the benediction by the Rev. Joseph G. Reece, pastor of the church; a salutatory address by Sarah Wylie; a piano solo, "In Twilight," by Katheren Allbee; songs, "Indian Dawn," "By the Waters of Minnetonka," by the glee club; piano solo, "Grande Polka De Concert," by Velma Nay; the commencement address; songs, "Only a Dream of Summer," "I Am King of the Outlaws," and "Song of the Sea," by the chorus; presentation of American Legion medals; piano solo, "Dolores," by Elva Ralston; benediction by Grace Apalategui; presentation of diplomas and the benediction by the Rev. Reece.

Graduates were Kathryn Allbee, Grace Apalategui, Thelma Cox, Yoshiko Dobashi, Anna Epperly, Harvey French, Yvonne French, Charlie Helzner, Billy Kahrs, Ruby Naracaro, Velma Nay, Elva Ralston, Warren Shaw, Katherine Shook, Sarah Wylie and Nelson Zuver.

The class president was Anna Epperly, the secretary, Yoshiko Dobashi and the motto: "Rowing, Not Drifting."

Meeting Wednesday evening in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Laura Hunton, of Santa Ana; Mrs. Stella Cooley, of Garden Grove, and Mrs. A. L. Cook, of Fullerton Park.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Schulz and C. G. Gauthaus attended an O. E. S. for an extended stay.

EXERCISES ARE CONDUCTED FOR EIGHTH GRADE

BUENA PARK, June 10.—Members of the 1932 graduating class of the Grand Avenue school received their diplomas in Congregational church Wednesday evening. The church was crowded with relatives and friends of the graduates. The 1932 class is the largest class ever graduated from the Buena Park grammar school. The platform was beautified with huge baskets of flowers given to the P. T. A. for the graduating class by the Buena Park nursery.

Stanley Kurtz, director of music at the Grand Avenue school, played a march as the graduates entered a rear door and marched down the aisle in twos, taking their places on the platform. The singing of "The Soldiers' Chorus" by the class opened the program.

The program for the graduation exercises, June 15, follows:

Processional: "Triumphal March" from "Aida," Verdi; orchestra; invocation, the Rev. Professor Corey spoke of their school days and expressed the wish that they would attain success in their work in life and their studies in other schools. The students winning in scholastic honors were then introduced. Virginia Van Loenen, winner of fifth place was introduced first, followed by Harold Peake, who placed fourth. Lorraine McNeice ranked third. The decision was so close for that second place that it was considered a tie between Geraldine McComber, president of the class, and Dorothy Crowther.

First in scholastic honors and valedictorian of her class was Betty Costar, J. B. Sullivan, acting for the school board, gave the diplomas to the graduates. The Rev. Mr. Newman spoke a word of prayer for the graduating class in closing.

THE WEEKLY PANTRY SHELF

NEWS OF THE SCHOOLS

Frances Willard

Service Club
The Willard Service club meeting was held in the school cafeteria Wednesday noon. Various committees made reports and the graduating H9's made farewell speeches. Mr. Read, faculty advisor, also made a speech, paying tribute to the past service club members. The meeting was brought to an end with much applause for the work of Harvey Baker, past president, and Gordon Lockett, past secretary.

Faculty Picnic

Members of the Willard faculty enjoyed their final get-together at a beach picnic last Thursday afternoon. After spending sometime hiking and boating the members convened at the cottage of Miss Bertha Briney where the committee in charge served an appetizing supper. During the evening a program of "Olympic contests" proved most interesting.

The committee responsible for the happy occasion included Miss Elfreda Biggin, chairman; Miss Tessie Childers, Miss Ruth Langley and Arnold Lund.

Friday's Assembly

The last assembly which was held Friday was put on by H7-1 class directed by Miss Deborah Elliott. The first number was a pantomime called "The Modern and Medieval Ballad of Mary Jane." The characters were: Ina Low, reader; "Mary Jane," Zelpha Matthews; "Benjamin," Genevieve Campbell; "the father," Phyllis Krock; and "Sir Mortimer," Margaret Davies. A piano solo was played by David Hunter. Phyllis Krock presented a reading called "Extinguished." Kenneth Aiken, accompanied by Dodley Page Harper, played a violin solo.

The last number on the program was a one-act play entitled, "Mrs. Jones and the Library." Those who took part were: Dorothy Matz as "Mrs. Jones"; Ruth Hood as "Ella May Jones"; Ruth Buell as "Tom Jones"; June Bladgett as "Sammy Lou Jones"; Anita Hall as "Mrs. Smith"; Robert Lippincott as "Bill Smith"; and Margaret Davies as "Edna Smith."

Pay Assembly

Wednesday's assembly was opened by Miss Davis leading the flag salute. The program was sponsored by the dramatics class under the direction of Miss Ruth Langley, and the music department directed by Miss Esther Jean Davis. The school orchestra, under the direction of Miss Gould, played between numbers.

The program was opened by Bill Hawkins, who urged all students to buy the farewell issue of the Willard Echo.

The first number on the program was the Girls' Chorus singing "Morning Praise" and "April Song." Chester Clark and Glen Layton played a guitar duet entitled "Farewell Blues."

The Boys' chorus sang three songs, "Moving Along," "Desert Song," and "Bells of the Sky." The orchestra played "The Old Clock."

The next number on the program was a play presented by the dramatics class, entitled "Esterbrook Nieces," which had the following cast: "Dad," Charles Spicer; "Charley," Archie Brock; "Sam," Willard Axworthy; "Edith," Leila Schroeder; "Mary," Barbara Doane; "Lucille," Muriel Bray; and "Barbara," Margaret Perry.

During the intermission between plays the Girls' chorus directed by Miss Helen Glancey sang "Brown Bird Singing," and "Indian Dawn."

The next play presented by the dramatics class was entitled "The Trysting Place." The cast was: "Launcelot," Bill Hawkins; "Mrs. Curtis," La Vene Parks; "Mrs. Briggs," (Launcelot's mother) Libby Peal; "Jesse," (Launcelot's sister) Dorothy Jackson; "Rupert Smith," Delbert Tucker; "Mr. Ingolberry," Jack Wallace; and the "Mysterious Voice," Charles Spicer.

Class Picnic

The low nine two class of Willard held a beach party at the cottage of Mrs. C. C. Hills, Newport Beach, Tuesday. Games and beach sports were enjoyed by all present. Later in the evening the student enjoyed a picnic supper. Special guests were Mrs. Mabel C. Budd, advisor of the class; Miss Vera Jacobs, Mrs. C. C. Hills, Mrs. Jack Hills, Mrs. J. O. Brunson and Miss Winnie Sieels.

Beach Party

On Wednesday Miss Vera Jacobs' low nine one home room had a delightful picnic. Directly after school the class motored to Balboa where swimming and games were enjoyed by all until sunset when a fire was built and a picnic supper was served. Stories were told around the campfire, then a last evening dip into the ocean and the party adjourned. Chaperones were Mrs. E. M. Bradley, Mrs. O. C. Dennie, A. F. Novotny and Miss Jacobs.

Julia Lathrop

Officers Elected
Friday, May 3, at the regular student body election, held toward the close of each semester at Lathrop, Carl Aubrey was elected president, Beverly Welndorf, vice-president; Fannie Standifer, secretary; and James Herrin, sergeant-at-arms, for the fall semester. Glenn Cave and Preston Hawk were chosen by the caucus as cheer leaders.

Lathrop has two political parties, the Green and the White. Possible candidates from the 12 divisions with grades above average submit applications for candidacy to H. G. Nelson, Lathrop principal. Mr. Nelson turns qualifying candidates over to a caucus made up of two students from each home room section, each student declaring either Green or White party affiliations. The caucus selects one candidate for each student-body office to represent each party.

The entire student body was taken to the assembly where Green party leader, Mac Warnke, explained the platform and introduced Green party candidates. Miss June Light, White party leader, introduced White party candidates and explained platform principles.

The elected officers were all members of the Green party.

Beach Outing
The annual athletic "Blowout" instituted in Lathrop approximately seven years ago by Coach Ferris Scott, Lathrop athletic mentor, was held at Corona Del Mar Wednesday, June 8.

The occasion for the "Blowout" each year is the winning of two out of three baseball games played at the close of the baseball season between the eighth and ninth grade squads. The losing squad supplies and serves a menu of hot dogs, potato salad, coffee, lemonade, buns and varieties of cake and pie.

Before the supper Wednesday, the Spartans enjoyed a series of indoor games, swimming, and an extended ocean boat ride in Coach Scott's new forty-foot cruiser.

Members of the eighth grade squad are Solis, Nieblas, Nitta, Mignon; Nitta, Mitsu, Lobo, Adams, Ausmus, Swafford, Montano, Jiles, Jesse, Bone, and Dahn, manager.

The ninth grade squad consisted of Burchester, McCullough, Brown, Burke, Castro, Nitta (Hitoshi), Shill, Durbin, McCune, Parks and Reserve.

Sketch Club Organized
"The Sketchers," recently organized art club, is fast becoming a prints were made under the surveillance of Harold Moomaw, instructor.

Class Day
Tuesday, June 14, Lathrop's H9's will hold Class Day. Lunch will be eaten in the Lathrop cafeteria at 11:30. The H9's will then go to the athletic field where Coach Ferris Scott will arrange each H9 student in an athletic activity. Mixed indoor teams, four boys and five girls, will play a series of games; tennis and handball matches will also be scheduled. In fact, a type game is planned for every interest. The games are scheduled to stop at 1:35 when the H9's will go to assembly for an especially arranged program.

Shop Activities

The close of the semester finds Phil Dowd, William Beckett, and Brayton Finishing electrical motors. Alvin DeBord, Jack Green, Don Kennedy, and Phil Dowd have also just completed small radio sets; while telegraph sets are being completed by Glenn Cave, Ralph Bradley, Winfield Gallienne, and Mac Warnke. These boys are in Mr. Burton Rowley's H8 shop class.

The H8 boys in Mr. Egger's wood shop class are turning out net, being of the group.

boats, gun racks, match boxes, and tables. Eldon Klingenberg and Jack Robinson have each completed good sized toy boats in which they are now installing motors. Jack Shilling is painting a beautiful gun rack. Orrie Sanders and Stanley Slaback are making tables for their mothers. Howard Graser is making a letter box and Bob Warren is putting the finishing touches on an unusually well made lamp.

SHOWER IS HELD

MIDWAY CITY, June 10.—A gift shower for Mrs. Grace Madera, of Santa Ana, was given by Mrs. Alice Roberts, of Huntington Beach, at the home of Mrs. Estella Arnett in Midway City this week. Fifteen women, friends of the honoree, were present and the afternoon was spent with games, two pretty prizes being presented the winners.

The guests of the occasion included friends from Costa Mesa, Santa Ana, Huntington Beach and Norwalk with three local women, Mrs. Estella Arnett, in whose home the affair took place; her daughter, Miss Lillian Arnett, and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Pearl Arnett.

The H8 boys in Mr. Egger's wood shop class are turning out net, being of the group.

THE WEEKLY PANTRY SHELF

THREE NEW TRICKS WITH THREE OLD FAVORITES

If you're like a lot of good cooks around town, you probably get pretty tired of serving things in the same old way.

Breakfasts and Sunday nights especially tax any woman's skill—what with the men bounding into the kitchen bright and early and sniffing around for something hot and good...and the young folks prancing in on Sunday nights, cold and hungry, looking for a tasty snack. Biscuits, griddle cakes and waffles are the good old standbys for these occasions—and here are three grand new ways to serve them.

The next time you make biscuits, turn them into a glorious cheese treat with the recipe given below. It's simple. No trouble at all and in a few moments, you can serve these biscuits piping hot—fluffy and browned and temptingly tangy—just begging for butter to make them perfect!

You can do exciting things with griddle cakes, too. And one new trick is suggested below. Such man-sized, airy-light cakes you've never seen—and how delicious they are with syrup or honey! Hot melted jelly, too, adds a lot of zip.

And here's a third old favorite that would never recognize itself. Good old waffles sharing honors with ham and eggs! A royal bounty for a Sunday night table! With the recipe given below, they really deserve the name of waffles—so light, crisp and tender!

Even if you aren't fast friends with your mixing bowl, you'll have great success with the three recipes given. That's because the Double-Acting Baking Powder is used in all of them! And the Double-Acting Baking Powder always means super-delicate textures—super-fine results! Notice its economy, too—only one teaspoon to one cup of sifted flour! Don't you feel like trying your hand at these recipes right away? Do it—and cut them out for safe keeping. You'll want to use them again and again!

Cheese Biscuits

1 cup sifted flour; 1 teaspoon double-acting baking powder; 1-2 teaspoon salt; 1 tablespoon butter or other shortening; 1-2 cup grated cheese; 3-8 cup milk or water.

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift again. Cut in shortening and cheese. Add liquid gradually until soft dough is formed. Roll 1-2 inch thick on slightly floured board. Cut with small, floured biscuit cutter. Bake in hot oven (450 degrees F.) 15 minutes. Make 12 biscuits.

Buckwheat Cakes

1 cup buckwheat flour; 1 teaspoon double-acting baking powder; 1-2 tablespoons sugar; 1-4 teaspoon soda; 1-4 teaspoon salt; 1 egg, well beaten; 1 cup sour milk; 1 tablespoon butter or other shortening, melted.

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, sugar, soda and salt, and sift again. Combine egg and milk and add to flour. Stir only until smooth. Add the shortening. Bake on hot, well-greased griddle. Serve hot with syrup. Make 12 cakes.

Ham Waffles

(Sour Milk)

2 cups sifted flour; 1-4 teaspoon soda; 2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder; 1-2 teaspoon salt; 1 tablespoon sugar; 2 egg yolks, well beaten; 1-2 cups sour milk; 1-3 cup melted butter; 2 egg whites, stiffly beaten; 1 cup uncooked smoked ham, finely diced.

Sift flour once, measure, add soda, baking powder, salt, and sugar, and sift again. Combine egg yolk, beating until smooth to flour, beating until smooth. Fold in egg whites. Bake on hot waffle iron, sprinkling 1-4 cup ham over batter of each waffle just before closing iron. Serve soft scrambled eggs on each waffle. Makes four 4-section waffles.

RECEPTION HELD IN SMELTZER HOME

SMELTZER, June 10.—A wedding reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. Carmel Grana, whose marriage took place April 2 in San Francisco, was given recently by the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Grana, at the family home in Smeltzer. The groom, who is of the crew of the U. S. S. California, and his bride came south with the return of the fleet and their home is now in Los Angeles.

A dinner was served by Mrs. Grana, who centered her table with a lovely wedding cake in pink and white, with miniature bride and groom decorating it.

Nineteen were present at the reception, including the honorees, Mr. and Mrs. Carmel Grana; Mr. and Mrs. George Benson and son, Robert, Long Beach; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Church, Hawthorne; Mr. and Mrs. George Stanley and daughter, Yvonne, Anaheim; Mr. and Mrs. Jake Grana and Peter Grana of the family group and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Woodington, of Smeltzer; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Derrigo and Mr. and Mrs. A. Getty, of Huntington Beach.

On next Tuesday will occur the last social dinner, at the church, before the summer vacation. This will take the form of a basket picnic on the church lawn.

It was announced that next Sunday will be celebrated at Children's day in the Brea Congregational church.

MAKE IT A "HIT" WITH CALUMET'S DOUBLE-ACTION!

HERE is a Silver Cake that you can invite to your proudest parties. It looks like a caterer's dream! Silky-smooth and delicate in texture. Light, tender, very delicious. It's perfect in every way.

Yet you can make it—easily—even if you're a beginner! Why?... The answer is—Calumet Baking Powder. Be sure to use Calumet—for it's Calumet's Double-Action that makes this Silver Cake a truly exquisite creation!

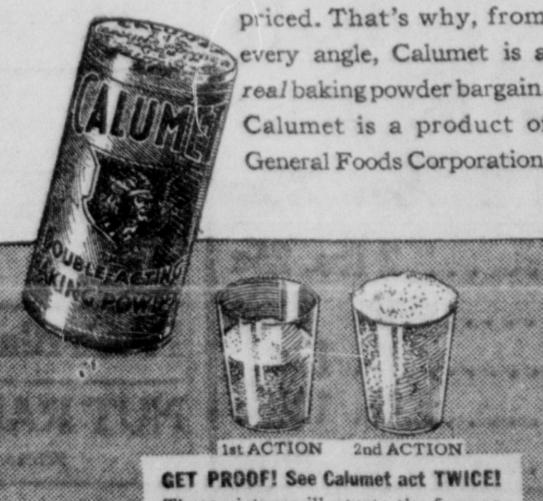

Calumet, you see, acts twice. That means extra protection—extra touches of perfection! Calumet's first action begins in the mixing bowl. It starts the leavening properly. Then, in the oven, the second action begins. Steadily, evenly, it continues the leavening. Up!...up!...it keeps raising the batter and holds it high and light. Cakes, quickbreads, too—all bake beautifully, perfectly! Calumet makes success so sure, that it is to-day the world's largest-selling baking powder!

LOOK! YOU SAVE, TOO!—The simple tested recipe given here is a Calumet recipe—specially designed for the Calumet proportion—only one level teaspoon to a cup of sifted flour. A splendid economy for you—thanks to the perfect efficiency of Calumet's Double-Action.

Be bargain-wise—try Calumet! Remember that Calumet brings to your baking superlative success—complete satisfaction—every time. It prevents costly failures. Added to that,

Calumet is reasonably priced. That's why, from every angle, Calumet is a real baking powder bargain. Calumet is a product of General Foods Corporation.

Why Boil Away Costly FRUIT JUICE?

ASKS THIS CHAMPION JELLY MAKER

... Why not turn every last bit into delicious tasting jam... and thus save 2½¢ per glass?

By Mrs. J. O. Schon
NEBRASKA STATE JELLY CHAMPION

"This year's fruit is the finest and cheapest we have had in years. And I know that hundreds of women reading this newspaper are going to take advantage of this fact and put up jams and jellies for the long winter months ahead.

"And I hope they will all use Certo! For Certo will save them, just as it saves me, a really considerable amount of money.

"With Certo, you see, only 1 minute's hard boiling time is necessary to make jelly from any fruit... and for most fruits even less.

"And thus hardly a single bit of juice has time to boil away in wasteful steam... with the result that you get one-half again more glasses from the same amount of fruit. Last year this saved me from 2 to 5¢ on every glass of jam or jelly that I made.

"And, of course, this Certo one-minute boil saves considerable time too. Indeed, I find it an easy matter to make a full batch of jelly in 12 minutes from the time I put my fruit juice and sugar on to cook."

Mrs. Schon's Certo-made jellies and jams have been awarded an almost endless succession of State Fair prizes during the past few seasons, for flavor, texture and color. In the last three years she has won 45 prizes at the Nebraska State Fair. And she is only one of the 5,000,000 jelly makers who are using this magical product.

Why don't you do as Mrs. Schon suggests and order a supply of Certo today with your fruit and other jelly making supplies? Simply follow carefully the Certo recipes that come in the booklet attached to every Certo bottle... and you can't go wrong. Don't delay. Get your bottle of Certo from your grocer today. It is a product of General Foods Corporation.

Then Mrs. Duke Discovered
Kellogg's ALL-BRAN

Of her own accord, Mrs. Duke sat down and wrote us a glowing tribute to Kellogg's ALL-BRAN:

"I have been constipated all my life, which has been about 20 years, up until last year when I started eating your ALL-BRAN. Since I have been eating it, people tell me I am looking better, and I am sure that I feel a great deal better."—Mrs. L. W. Duke, 210 Hardin Ave., College Park, Ga.

Constipation is usually caused by lack of two things in the diet: "bulk" to exercise the intestines; Vitamin B to help give them tone. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides both of these dietary necessities, as well as iron for the blood.

Within the body, the "bulk" in ALL-BRAN forms a soft mass, which gently clears the intestines of wastes.

How much more natural it is to enjoy this delicious cereal than to risk taking pills and drugs—so often harmful.

Just eat two tablespoonsfuls daily—serious cases with every meal—for most types of constipation. ALL-BRAN is not habit-forming. If your intestinal trouble is not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Sold in the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

KNOW THE SOURCE of the bottled water
you drink!

It makes all the difference in the world

SUPPOSE you could wave a magic wand—and have your choice of drinking waters! River water, captured rain water, water from surface springs or city wells. Or water from some favored mile-high mountain spring.

Which would you choose? Why—water from a mountain-spring, of course! Especially water from a world-famous juvenile* spring, protected by 2 million acres of virgin forest.

You'd feel sure of its purity; of just the right degree of "softness." You'd know in advance that its "taste" would delight you.

Well, did you know that you can choose. It's no trouble at all to make sure of just that kind of drinking water. All you have to do is insist upon Arrowhead Spring Water from mile-high, juvenile Arrowhead Springs. And, here's good news: it costs no more than ordinary bottled water.

Just telephone! We'll gladly deliver a 5-gallon bottle to your office or your home—with a guarantee that it must please you, or your money back.

Home (or office) delivered—in 5-gallon bottles. Iceless Ollas or Ice Coolers loaned without charge. Our new Hydromatic (the last word in iceless coolers) on a nominal rental basis. Ask for a demonstration!

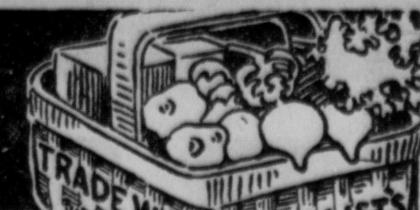

{ Juvenile Water is the Geologist's term for water newly formed by nature's fusion of oxygen and hydrogen deep in the earth, far removed from contamination. }

ARROWHEAD
SPRING WATER

Crystal-clear "juvenile" water—brought to you just as it bubbles from its mile-high bed of virgin granite in the San Bernardino Mountains—home of that world-famous American spa, Arrowhead Springs Hotel.

SCHOOL YEAR TO END WITH PICNIC

OLIVE, June 10.—The present school year of St. Paul's Lutheran school will be brought to a formal close with the annual picnic to be held June 19 in Irvine park. Instruction will come to an end June 17. The following members of the eighth grade will receive their diplomas: Arno Boehner, Dorothy Luchau, Margaret Kreidt, Norman Schmid and Fred Spelch.

Mr. Schmid and Mr. Mueller, teachers of the school, are busy drilling the pupils for a patriotic program to be given at the picnic. The greater part of the program will take the form of a George Washington bicentennial celebration.

A committee composed of H. O. Luchau, Robert Paulus, Walter Timken, Robert Lemke, Walter Meier and Herbert Meierhoff, is arranging various amusements. The Get-Together club and the Ladies Aid will again have a needlework booth and grab-bag for the visitors.

Bridge Dinner
Held for Club

ORANGE, June 10.—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hobbs were hosts Wednesday night at a bridge dinner when they entertained the members of the 1919 club and their husbands. Roses and gaudolouses were used in decking the home for the lovely event and dinner was served at the card tables. High score was made by Mrs. Orio Hobbs, who was awarded a lovely prize.

Those present other than the hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Orio Hobbs, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Klaner, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Ristow, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hildebrandt, Mr. and Mrs. Max Struck of Santa Ana; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ristow, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bertman, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Forker and Mrs. Herbert Timme.

THE WEEKLY PANTRY SHELF

SUGGESTIONS GIVEN FOR SUMMER SALADS

June Salad

One cup unmixed cottage cheese, 2 tablespoons thick sweet cream, 1 cup strawberries.

Mash cheese and season lightly with salt. Beat in cream and add strawberries which have been cut in halves. Arrange on hearts of lettuce and serve with whipped cream dressing.

Whipped Cream Dressing

One-half cup whipping cream, 1 tablespoon powdered sugar, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 3 tablespoons lemon juice, 1-8 teaspoon paprika.

Whip cream until firm. Fold in remaining ingredients and serve at once.

Frozen Cheese Salad

One cup mixed cheese, 1 cup whipping cream, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-8 teaspoon white pepper, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 4 slices pineapple, 1-2 cups diced cold boiled ham, 1-2 cups diced cold boiled potatoes, 1 cup diced celery, 1 hard cooked egg, mayonnaise.

Lettuce, garnish with strawberries or red raspberries and serve with whipped cream dressing.

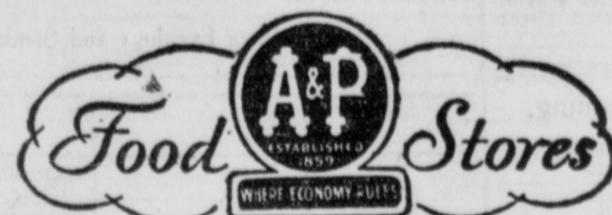

Ham Salad

One and one-half cups diced cold boiled ham, 1-2 cups diced cold boiled potatoes, 1 cup diced celery, 1 hard cooked egg, mayonnaise.

Combine ham, potatoes and celery, tossing lightly with a fork. Add mayonnaise to make moist and serve on crisp lettuce. Garnish with slices of hard cooked egg and serve.

Potato Salad à la Russe

Two cups diced cooked potatoes, 1-2 cups diced cold boiled ham, 1-2 cups diced cold boiled potatoes, 1 cup diced celery, 1 hard cooked egg, mayonnaise.

MR. M'ADOO PROPOSES

The Honorable William G. McAdoo announced yesterday for a popular referendum upon the Eighteenth Amendment. He would have this done under the provision of the Constitution that empowers Congress to "provide for the general welfare." It would appear that he would have Congress appropriate money for a plebiscite, so that the people of the country could register their views by a ballot upon a portion of the Constitution. It would have nothing to do with the Constitution itself, but it would be informative, we suppose.

Some people may consider it asinine, but it follows the desires or wishes of what the liquor fellows want. It keeps up the agitation.

Mr. McAdoo unfortunately has changed his tone and attitude upon this matter. There was a time when his voice and utterance rang with a different note than this one with which he speaks on the eve of this Democratic convention.

Let us read what he said upon this very issue when he was speaking prior to this noisy, if not numerous, clamor by the "wets" for repeal. At that time he was addressing the State Bar association of Ohio. This was only four years ago. He said:

If the amendment is bad, there is a lawful and constitutional way to get rid of it, namely, by the adoption of another amendment in the nature of a repeal or modification. Some of the opponents of prohibition—in Nevada, for instance—are urging that this method should be used; and they are altogether within their rights in thus seeking to advance their views in a proper and legitimate way, which will give opportunity for a discussion of the merits of the question and permit the issue to be finally set at rest in the orderly manner which the Constitution contemplates.

He said that it might be necessary to clothe our Chief Executive with such power to carry this on. This is the real problem, and it is time that the brains and statesmanship of this country dropped the asinine discussion of a popular ballot on the liquor question, and leave that to the Literary Digest, or anybody else that wants to carry it on, and address themselves to the economic plan with an earnestness and undivided mind which will bring results.

If our national leaders and able men will not do these things, it will be done for us by others who have not ability, who are more or less irresponsible, and the end will come, if any good at all, only after suffering, privation and disaster. We have the wealth, we have the power, we have the people, we have the goods, and we have the money. Is it possible that we do not have the ingenuity?

Raymond Fosdick, who was for years advisor to John D. Rockefeller, speaking only three or four months ago on this very issue, gave some important utterances. After describing the condition in this country, he said:

This is the kind of nightmare that haunts our sleep as 1931 draws to its unhappy close. Has our industrial civilization grown so complex that no human brains can control it? Is there intelligence enough in the world to find some path out of this jungle of machinery and untamed forces? Even if there were some super-intelligence whom we could trust to guide us, would we consent to follow his leadership? Disengaged by many counsels, swamped by the paraphernalia of living, weighed down by mountains of facts, will we in the end refuse all guidance and perish in the jungle our own machines have created?

This is the question that confronts our people. Our national politicians are like the clowns in the circus, striking each other with the inflated bladder, while the serious matters of the country are very largely ignored.

Some People Would Not Mind Restlessness

The Fresno Tribune

With many residents of the United States, and of the world for that matter, wondering where they are going to get the next meal, the finding of Dr. Leo L. Stanley, San Quentin Prison physician, that one sleeps better on an empty stomach, has a timely significance.

After exhaustive research upon selected prison inmates, the physician found that an individual moved an average of 7.89 times during sleep. The number of movements was increased by food eaten immediately before retiring.

Cake increased the twitches by less than one-toss; meat sent the sleeper into more restlessness, but buttered toast failed to raise the average and some other foods did not add to the normal rate.

Hence, assuming that diet has the same effect on a prison inmate as it does on any one else, the tests merely show what has been generally understood—that heavy foods eaten before retiring usually produce a bad night.

But those who have difficulty in obtaining any food at all probably would be quite willing to undergo whatever restlessness might result from the satisfaction of a full stomach.

Another Come-Back

The Oakland Tribune

Baseball turnstiles which revolved rather slowly at the beginning of the season are now telling a new story. Twenty-five thousand fans saw a game at Los Angeles Monday; Boston broke all records one day last week when 51,000 turned out; and New York, on a Thursday, packed 55,000 in the stands. The fans, rejoicing that the game is coming back stronger than ever, are wondering if the rather unexpected increase in interest may not testify to bettering economic conditions. At any rate, the old game seems to be coming back.

We are for the McAdoo of 1924 and of 1932. We read with approval the address from which we quoted above. There is no different set of facts now existing than existed at the time that Mr. McAdoo delivered this address, other than that the liquor crowd have become more belligerent and determined.

We are sorry that we have to also disagree with his statement concerning President Wilson, but when he was Governor of New Jersey, we recall how impossible it was to get him to take a stand upon the question. And, when he was forced into the open, he took such a stand as to straddle the question. And finally, we are reminded that the Volstead Act itself was only enacted into law over President Wilson's veto.

We must choose as to whether Mr. McAdoo's statement here in the midst of this political activity, or his statement, deliberate and strong, before the Ohio Bar association, expresses the real convictions of the man. As the deliverance of a statesman, with the thought of arriving at

A Few "Economy" Suggestions for Congress

More Truth Than Poetry

By James J. Montague

A CALL TO ACTION

Why sadly sigh for the days gone by
When adventure called afar,
And the Northern light in the Arctic night
Was the Nimrod's guiding star?
Up in Baffin's Bay there are bears to slay,
And before the howling gales,
With hissing spouts from their massive snouts
Surge scores of mammoth whales.
If the peril of high romance you seek,
Take the boat for Greenland that sails next week.

Why settle down in a listless town
When there still are peaks to climb,
Which tower high in the azure sky
Alone from the tide of time?
The winds may howl and the glaciers growl,
But with unrelenting zest,
You can strive to stand with a flag in hand
On the uttermost lofty crest
Where so tiny your earthly cares will seem
That they'll fade away like a misty dream.

Why limit your ken to the world of men
Who know but the ways of town?
Why not shake the hands of the savage bands
Of yellow and black and brown?
Learn with them to fight in the tropic night
Or to harry the beasts of prey,
And find repose where the Niger flows
Till your cares are dissolved away,
And while upon alien shores you roam
I shall think of you; but I'll stay at home.

BLOWING UP AN APHORISM

The present session of the national legislature will cost upwards of three billion dollars. And yet, some people are still saying that talk is cheap.

Thoughts On Modern Life

By GLENN FRANK

THE TWILIGHT OF COMPETITION

In our thinking about the traditional American ideal of competition, it is important to remember that the economic background of competition has changed radically from the background against which it was conceived.

Competition was an idea conceived when mankind was living under an economy of scarcity. We are now living under an economy of plenty.

Most of the things we have believed about competition are no longer true.

Competition does not lower prices. Competition raises prices.

Competition does not reduce the costs of distribution. Competition raises the costs of distribution.

The things that lower prices and costs are:

Technological improvements in manufacturing.

Reductions in the cost of raw materials.

Increases in the productive efficiency of labor.

Improvements in managerial efficiency.

At the heart of the great issue of the recovery and stabilization of prosperity is the problem of rethinking competition in terms of the new economic world in which we live.

Our Children

THREATS

It is worse than idle to threaten a child. Far better to keep still. A threat usually stimulates a child into action. Then, if you have made an impossible promise you are in a bad position. The child knows that your voice is but the empty sound of nothingness which is no knowledge for a child to possess in this day and generation.

"John Henry, if you open that drawer I'll cut your ears off."

John Henry

considers the possibilities for a moment and then like a sensible child decides that they are negligible. He opens the drawer and throws things hither and thither.

"You dreadful child. Didn't I tell you not to do that?" Yes, but you also told him that he had a good chance to get away with his disobedience and his ears.

Another form of useless threatening is the promise of dire consequences to follow some slight omission. "All right, Peter. You'll get your feet wet and get a sore throat and the doctor will come and give you nasty medicine. The doctor will fix you. You'll see."

The inviting puddle draws Peter to it and he thoroughly wets his feet. His mother takes him in, scolding steadily, pulls off the wet shoes and stockings, washes the chilled feet, dresses them again, and turns Peter loose. What happened to teach Peter not to wet his feet in a puddle? Nothing to tell him. But he has stored in the back of his head somewhere that a doctor is somebody to look out for. He does unpleasant things to you.

Childish interest is soon over and done. One activity soon replaces the other. If we are wise we use that idea to guide a child and save our breath for a better purpose than threatening what we have no intention of performing.

TODAY IS THE WORLD WAR ANNIVERSARY OF

Sez. Hugh:

FRENCH ARE BEATEN

On June 10, 1918, German storm troops struck a tremendous blow at the French front on the Marne, advancing more than two miles and taking 8000 French prisoners.

The villages of Mery, Belley and St. Maure were stormed by the German forces after a day of desperate fighting.

Pressure on the French was so great that emergency reserve regiments were ordered into the battle zone.

The Austrian battleship Szent Istvan was sunk by Italian gun-boats off the Dalmatian coast.
